Thread: Would this be of value? Suggestions/Opinions needed <3

Jash - August 16, 2015, 10:00 am

Ok guys. I'm all aware of having a bunch of teens here in HF, and having frequented The Lounge and Innuendo sections, I just feel a very deep empathy on a core problem that pretty much every teen here contains inside him.

The list follows:Inability to get in terms with friends, families

Social awkwardness

Anxiety

General confidence in pursuing one's wants

The list goes on, I'm aware of it as the past 7 years I can still remember myself being in the same spot as them. It sucks, it's painful, and it's so goddamn confusing to find a way out. It's literally the elephant in the room here - we are all aware of it in the back of our minds but on the superficial level we don't want to address it because of course we're afraid of rejection, being shamed, etc.

Point being of this thread is I want to create something sort of like a short course comprised of Video Recordings that may serve as a guide.

A little bit on my background: I'm under 4 businesses at the moment(2 family companies, 2 online), I read a bunch of books, been studying social dynamics and dating stuff for years and am willing to share it in any given opportunity.

Personally I'm not after the money on here already, I just want to give it a shot on trying to help these fellow members out. Did a couple notes earlier and production itself could already cost around 2 weeks of preparation and recording. After all I'm just another kid who grew up in this forums, at this point there's no hesitation anymore on giving something back.

So yeah, do you think this would be of value to the HF?

I personally wouldn't buy this even if you handed me money on the side to take it but I know you sure as hell can make a killing if you upload them to youtube and make a series.

I honestly do not see a lot of traffic from HF for something like this. Putting it on YouTube and just making a thread about it here wouldn't hurt, but I wouldn't depend on HF to be your main source of traffic.

I too think HF shouldn't be your main audience here. Sure, there may be some people interested, but I think you can find a bigger audience on YouTube itself or other social communities.

You too brother, noted. Thanks ;)

I still plan on releasing such a course though.. I'm currently creating drafts now for a week-series of vids. Regards
