Thread: Looking to buy clients with features new features, or bypassed features

billytalent231 - August 26, 2015, 11:10 am

The only client I have found is Flare, but I am not dead set on buying it yet.

Anyone else had better luck?

You can buy direkt or solstice for 150 - 250$
Cheap i know.

The only public paid client (as far as I'm aware) currently is Flare.

How much did you pay for it?
I wasn't even aware Toj had started selling Solstice...

What features are there, and bypasses, that it would be worth that much?

He already has to trust you for him to even offer you solstice. To be honest, flare is a solid choice, it's only $ 9 and is updated often.

I only know of a TP exploit working in 1.8 and 1.8.1 (vanilla only). I only know of the method, I cannot code Java that well so I can't make you a client. But if you got another coder Ill happily sell the exploit to you.

I bought Solstice. I know Tojatta real well, so he gave me a discount. I payed like 240$. It was worth it, no regret.
