Thread: OMC Integration

Omniscient - August 27, 2015, 10:49 am

Meh, I decided to install the plugin provided by the Omnicoin Dev Team to HF as a test.

I think it's not ready to production release by F-it. Why not? I know they did the work and well, feeling rather unhappy how this is all workout out (or not working out).

<https://hackforums.net/coins.php>

Consider it a beta. I know it looks terrible but it is functional. I was planning on cleaning up the GUI before launching it but time has just never allowed it. With the plugin installed and running I may be more likely to fix it.

Bittrex might remove OMC tomorrow. I guess it depends on their algorithm for the activity. One day we had a few BTC but not every single day we had .2 BTC. Unsure if it's going to average enough or if we need to convince them to keep it. I think if we're delisted that OMC will be close to dead.

If it does go dead then I will very likely convert the plugin for BTC instead. So the work at least won't be wasted in that regard.

Thanks.

This looks super neat!

Good job Omni!

Very cool. I'm glad this finally got added. I think I'm the first to add an address too :)

Because the plugin isn't ready for production. You can ask "Why why why" about a number of things and all you're going to do is piss me the fuck off. I'm a fucking super busy mother fucker with a lot of shit to do every fucking day.

The Supreme Leader - August 27, 2015, 11:40 am

This is pretty sweet to be honest

Roger Waters - August 27, 2015, 11:41 am

This is pretty cool, setting it up right now.

Edit: It shows up on your profile? Dope.

Hexicidal - August 27, 2015, 11:41 am

I look forward to the new BTC plugin.

Yep, and if you have any OMC in the address it will show on your posts / threads by your rep.

Is that supposed to show up on the postbit? If so, I don't see it. I also noticed it showed up on the UserCP.

Yes. From what I remember it only shows your balance if it is positive. I'll double check the code.

Edit: Nevermind. The postbit part was removed.

Limited Edition - August 27, 2015, 12:11 pm

Interesting, I like this. This could potentially make the market place a little safer since users OMC (and maybe BTC in the future) will show on the users profile page. Thanks to Omni for adding it and the creators that made it. ?

HIGH PAID FELLA - August 27, 2015, 12:13 pm

Using this with crypto currencies could be very handy when you're dealing with someone.

Ah ok. Is there something that automatically updates the amount stated on your profile? The amount didn't update on mine.

The balance is cached for 1 hour and will update when you view the page again.

Cammy - August 27, 2015, 12:20 pm

It doesn't work with omnicha.in yet I take it? I have a wallet and made a signature on there but I get the following error:

Quote:Error: Invalid Omnicoin address signature

It sure looks like a handy plugin though, fancy work Omni.

This is great news for Omnicoin! Thank you for just running with it to see what happens omni

I'm not sure why it's not working correctly. I'll take a look at it.

Grim - August 27, 2015, 12:30 pm

This is a really cool feature! I hope OMC will stay on the market but even if it doesn't this would be nice for Bitcoin or any other crypto currency as well thanks!

And the balance update definitely works, your profile now says 1000 OMC :)

Blazin - August 27, 2015, 12:34 pm

Converting it to a BTC plugin would be a good idea.

Seeing as it's the most used ALT coin at the moment.

Picton - August 27, 2015, 12:40 pm

Hi,

May I ask if Omniwallet.org is a scam or I can use it? , I am probably interested in getting started with this coin, I won't use an offline one.

That's something for Mastercoin, not Omnicoin. The two aren't related.

You should use omnicha.in/wallet if you need an online wallet

This plugin is aimed at omnicoin because that is omnicoin's area of innovation - forum integration.

Bitcoin isn't an altcoin. An altcoin is any coin that isn't Bitcoin.

It will probably get switched to BTC, although it depends on how OMC goes.

Happeh - August 27, 2015, 2:28 pm

Eh, it's probably not worth the effort to do but I may as well do it.

I can't wait to get home and add my address.

It's fixed now and should work fine.

Zettabit - August 27, 2015, 9:07 pm

I'm kinda hoping that in the future the coin comes back. I'm going to hold on to whatever I have, and hope that we can get listed on a different exchange (if we get delisted).

Fingers crossed that we don't get removed.

adampelletgun - August 27, 2015, 11:03 pm

This would be a nice feature for BTC and maybe even Skype usernames.

R.I.P OMC.

Realizm - August 28, 2015, 8:46 am

So if Omnicoins is not delisted today, do you still plan to go ahead with Omnicoins at all? Such as 3P1C and the OMC award?

KFC Watermelon - August 28, 2015, 11:17 am

Some forums have a "Credits" system, where users can exchange "Credits" for services and products. These "Credits" usually appear on all posts and profiles, like where the reputation is. I think it would be an excellent idea to have "OMC" listed here, allow users to deposit OMC into their HF Account so to speak, and exchange it in between users.

KFC Watermelon - August 28, 2015, 11:34 am

(Aug 28, 2015 11:26 AM)xadamxk Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) If my memory is right, I stumbled upon a thread that talked about HF having this in the past.

Around 09 or 10' i think.

Sadly, I wasn't around during that time.

However, full OMC integration into HF how I mentioned it, I honestly think will completely revive OMC. People on this forum take things like reputation seriously, they would do the same for OMC if it appeared on their profile. It should be like:

OMC: 81.2k

Next to their profile, for users with 81,000 OMC, for example.

After that, I think distributing some "starter OMC" to all Ub3rs and perhaps l33t, and re-opening the OMC Marketplace, may be what OMC needs.

However, Omniscient has a very solid point. OMC is not making profit, and too much time has been invested. He has better things to focus on, and it may be sad to put OMC into the ground, it is the truth. From a business standpoint it is the viable option IMO.

It is like that in the original plugin, but Omniscient has removed it I think.

Roger Waters - August 30, 2015, 1:37 pm

Would there be a possibility of adding a page to see who has the most OMC linked to their Hack Forums account?

Mons - August 30, 2015, 1:39 pm

Omnicoins value has risen a lot last days.

Thanks, Omni.
