Thread: Looking to buy a comfortable chair

I've realised my current chair is not that great. AKA a piece of wood.

I don't want to empty my wallet, so I'm looking for something for a good deal.

Current one I'm looking at:

I wanna get me a Master GT Omega chair i've seen a lot of the trendy fags that have that chair but it does kinda look small im not sure if its because they look small in the chair or what i'd like to see one in person and sit in it I heard they're opening stores here in the US soon but the GT Omega chair is only in the UK right now but they do ship to the US but its like over $400 for the chair with shipping :B

A decent chair. Kind of small feeling though.

I'm 6 foot and weigh 160lbs.

I didn't know office max/ depot throw away chairs... I found a printer in there before though.

i'm also looking for a chair, the amazon one looks like it's gonna wear out in less than a year

The one you're looking at is really nice, the one I have

http://www.amazon.com/dp/B00166DR9S/ref=wl_it_dp_o_pC_nS_ttl?_encoding=UTF8&colid=239M

3OHA3JS5X&coliid=IP90LSNBFRINL looks almost the same and cost me double, get the one you're looking at

If you're on the computer a lot I recommend dx racer. They have good back support (posture wise) and arm handles are sterdy as fuck.

Never get a DX Racer chair. They are really overpriced. I recommend you to ask a fitness guy or your doctor. Also, the chair you posted is good for office working. If you are sitting for more than 8 hours, then you need to atleast make 10m gymnastic every 3 hours.

I'm only sitting max 5 hours at a time, and that's rare.

Then you can get a office chair. The one you showed is really good. Don't forgot to stretch yourself and warm up your muscles. Im not even kidding.

Went for my original chair. Definitely worth it! Way better than chairs I've seen for twice the price. Thanks for the advice everyone!
