Thread: EP1C Userbar has the Omnicoin logo in it but you can no longer pay with OMC.

This is something I just noticed but it's not that important. Thought this was worth mentioning.

Pretty sure Omni's aware of this already. Not sure if he's going to change it or not though.

Personally it doesn't really bother me that the OMC logo is there and I'm pretty sure it's the same with others.

I agree. If in the near future the userbars happen to change, then maybe it'll be changed.

One question out of topic, how to select the epic as default?

Currently showing leet beside my username, but I can't figure out how to switch back to epic.?

Head to 'User CP'

Click 'Group Memberships'

Under 'Groups you're a member of' select 'Set as display group' next to 3P1C

Thanks, no wonder I can't find it, I never scroll to the bottom page.

I prefer 3pic, look kind of nicer.?

Maybe when Omni rebuilds the site theme we'll get some new userbars.

This is why.

Well omnicoin is a pretty big part of this forum so I think it is fitting that 3p1c has the omnicoin logo even if it isn't purchasable with omnicoin at the moment.

Grin - August 27, 2015, 10:36 pm

Would be pretty cool if it changed to an E at the beginning of the userbar, but all in all, that would be a useless modification. It's just aesthetics. I like the Epic userbar right now anyways.

Ahri????? - August 27, 2015, 10:43 pm

Personally I think it's fine the way it is. OMC was part of HF history we shouldn't simply start erasing it from the books just because it didn't do as good as predicted.

I don't see a big need to change the image.
