Veezon - August 29, 2015, 12:54 pm

This giveaway is pretty simple. I will be giving away $60 between three people to spend on products based here on HackForums.

The Giveaway ends on 31st September 2015

There will be 3 winners who win a budget of $20 each to spend on products here on the forums. Without further ado, let's discuss how to enter.

To enter, you must:

Comment on the thread with a number between 1 and 150.

Convince me to give you multiple entries. This can be done by making me laugh or promising me that you won't spend it in the stress testing market ;), anything really...

The winners will be drawn using random.org (on video) on 31st September 2015.

And a joke:

Three girls die and go to heaven... they are greeted by st. Peter at the pearly gates. He welcomes them and then says "But be careful, there are lots of ducks in heaven. If you step on any you will be punished".

The girls go in and the first one steps on a duck right away and the ugliest man in existence gets chained to her for eternity. The second girl steps on a duck after about a week and the second ugliest man is chained to her for eternity. The third girl, however, never steps on a duck and the most beautiful man she had ever seen was chained to her. "What did I do to deserve such a nice thing?" she asks God. God looks at her and says, "He stepped on a duck."
