Okay, so it's not much money but still.

Regarding my thread about "buying weed online", this user messaged me asking how to do it, and so he added my Skype.

I said £10 for the tutorial which he agreed to at the time.

I said 2g's was £20.

Image here: <https://gyazo.com/e23ca2e8433bc8eca8680c8ef8d22c86>

He said £30 for 2g's, the other £10 was for the tutorial.

That was that.

<https://gyazo.com/ec9b65b8938a70424fc79c280c1d85b1>

So after going through simple ropes, we called eachother where I taught him several things about how to buy etc, I won't go into too much detail as Dark-web discussion isn't allowed on HF. The call lasted for 6:30 minutes. As you see here, he even says "damn right, want me to end the call and get my sit straight then i'll message you?" After showing him the tutorial, he was ready for me to order the marijuana online, which then if you look at the top half of this DD, he says "$30 for 2g's".

[25/08/2015 23:47:10] Reama: yeah

[25/08/2015 23:47:16] Reama: you need these encryptions

[25/08/2015 23:47:29] Mikey.HF: or else I'll have the feds at my door?

[25/08/2015 23:47:34] Reama: not really

[25/08/2015 23:47:35] Mikey.HF: and I'm not even gonna ship it to my house

[25/08/2015 23:47:38] Reama: but increase chance yes

[25/08/2015 23:47:48] Mikey.HF: hmmm kk

[25/08/2015 23:47:50] Mikey.HF: what would fee be?

Quote:Well, £10 for tutorial, or £10 to order So all I'm asking is the £10 for the tutorial which he agreed upon, I didn't order for him, so that's all he owes me, but now he's trying to avoid paying me after not responding for days. The tutorial happend in the Skype chat but more importantly when we was on Skype call, when I was browsing Tor and showing him encryptions etc.

Now he is being very childish and sending me shit from my other threads.

Quote:[15:26:36] Mikey.HF: fucking faggot i never agreed to pay you anything]
[15:26:41] Mikey.HF: get off of my dick you beggar
As you see he doesn't know much of anything really.

Quote:[25/08/2015 23:59:29] Mikey.HF: what does nnd mean?

[25/08/2015 23:59:45] Reama: Next Day Delivery

[25/08/2015 23:59:47] Mikey.HF: ohhhhhhhhhh

[25/08/2015 23:59:51] Mikey.HF: fucking duh

All I'm asking is the £10 for the tutorial I gave him. I was cool with him and showed him the tutorial first, ofc, he knew that I was being kind so he exploited me saying that he's going to pay and then message me soon.

I never agreed to anything, this user is broke and trying to get any penny he can.

Didn't give me a tutorial, showed me reviews of the seller on Skype.

Kind of annoyed that I'm trying to get haggled for this.

--

I would gladly pay if I actually owed him something. But I don't, so I feel no sympathy.

Not really, what you're posting is irreverent, users, that was for a VPN to buy, please stay on topic.
+ The second Imgur is showing that you're ignoring my messages. Third Imgur, I am in debt with another user? Problem? It's not an issue.

We have all gathered that you're very childish.

They aren't irrelevant, but keep trying.

The third image is why you would be haggling me for such a little sum of money that I never agreed to pay.

If he's not going to pay you, then he simply wont. Not much else too it.

He basically talked to me on skype and claimed it was a tutorial that costs ~$10?

All you did was state that a tutorial costs £10.

And what were the messages following. If you care to show.

One L?ve - August 30, 2015, 8:56 am

Okay, I understand but OP is claiming he tutored you.

So you post something you wrote for no reason? This doesn't prove anything, it's just words saying that you're being cautious about the dark-web. Gj tho.

I never did agree to receive a tutorial in exchange for money.

If there is some kind of proof out there of me agreeing to receive a tutorial for money, I would love to see it.

Well there for starters.

£30 for 2g's, including "THE TUTORIAL"...

Mik3y - August 30, 2015, 9:13 am

It was never including a tutorial.

That shows me agreeing to buy 2g's for £30.

The extra £10 is for you to order. But I never placed an order.

See below:

Nope, I said £10 for tutorial, which I gave to you over Skype call, which I listed.

I have solid proof, you have none. Pay me my money you scammer.

Mik3y - August 30, 2015, 9:18 am

Nope.

You said:

I was debating buying 2g's for £30.

You simply showed me the marketplace and reviews via Skype so I could see what they were selling. Never tutored me on how to do anything.

Unfortunately, since there's no proof of you actually tutoring him or anything, and you never ordered anything, it's an invalid scam report.

If you were to have video evidence of you showing your tutored him/ordered, then it'd be valid. You could open a community alert, but not a scam report.

Sorry for your losses bud.

Wrong. I tutored him through text and Skype call. There is evidence as he's already admitted that I gave him a tutorial, he said I gave him a tutorial but he said that I didn't say anything of money which I did. This thread isn't about ordering anything, it was just for the tutorial.
