So I'm here again... Making another giveaway for the game "Grand Theft Auto V" that can be redeemed and played on Steam.

I know myself how much I loved to play videogames (when they were all good of course). Playing RuneScape in 2009 with my brother was the shit, when 1M GP and tin ores was something I looked forward to when I got home from school.

I've always used to play videogames to make time pass as I had an extreme social anxiety, and I'm an anti-social person overall. Ain't nuthin wrong bout it bruddas, keep your hopes up.

It doesn't hurt me at all giving away some "expensive"/good games, so comment below why you think you deserve one.<

Best of luck everybody, it's my turn to give something back to the community that has changed my life completely.

FUCK IT BROSKI'S I'LL GIVE AWAY 5 GTA V COPIES TO 5 PEOPLE THAT GIVES ME A GOOD REASON ??

CRT - August 31, 2015, 6:49 am

I'd like a copy of this simply because I recently bought a new gaming PC. I would like to know if I can run GTA on it and don't fancy spending $40 to find out I can't.

Taylor Swift? - August 31, 2015, 6:52 am

I'd like a copy. Reason being I got a new graphics card the Geforce GTX 660 and want to test it out on some big ass games, this being the perfect one :D. Thanks ma man.

iWatch - August 31, 2015, 6:53 am

The two reasons are some understandable ones, but aside your heavy setup, where's the love for sum' games?

Pury - August 31, 2015, 6:54 am

Id like a copy because i like to game, and i have negative rep

Shorta - August 31, 2015, 6:54 am

I don't know if this is a good reason or not, but my best friend have been wanting to play this game forever. Since it came out on consoles, he only have a pc tho.

But when it finally got released on steam he haven't been able to get the money for it, I know it's not really that expensive but he's packed up with bills as he moved out for about 2 years ago. Very expensive to live here. He's played all of the GTA series but this one so far, he's a gamer freak lol.

Thank you a lot OP for doing this amazing thing. :)

Oversoul - August 31, 2015, 7:59 am

Omg, I'd really really like to get a copy of GTA V. Mainly because I can't afford it and have only played pirated GTA games before (Well most of the games I play are pirated.) Yes that's all. Don't have any sad stories or anything and I'm sure it won't apply to this. XD ?

EDIT: I badly want it. I would beg for it, but I can't. lol

Thanks for you random generosity my friend!

GL everyone ;)

alex501212 - August 31, 2015, 8:19 am

I'd really apprericaite a copy, reason being is my pc recently has broken and I haven't been able to play any game for a week or so, but my pc will be fixed at the end of the week so it would be a really good game to play when I get my pc back.

Ok for real now, my dad is a gamer and so am I. My did is really busy with work right now and I would like to give his some time off. If I were to recieve this game I would send it to my dad, who has it on his steam wishlest

The Supreme Leader - August 31, 2015, 8:30 am

I don't deserve one more than anyone else but it would be awesome to play with my friends. I can't really afford one right now since i'm doing school and then a community college type thing. I've always been a gamer. I got into the GTA series when I was like 8 LOL. I've been gaming since I was 6. I later got a 360 in 2008 and played Halo 3 NONSTOP. That game was my life lol. Now I play BO2 or CS:GO most of the time. Gaming has been my escape from shit that went down in my life and if it wasn't for gaming, idk what I would do. Thanks for the awesome giveaways man.

WarOnDrugs - August 31, 2015, 8:49 am

I'd like a copy of GTA V to play as I have finally upgraded from my Acer laptop to a sturdy gaming PC build which means I can play more graphic intensive games and make more efficient recordings.

Fkzz - August 31, 2015, 8:50 am

My pc is shit, I had to use a lot of coil to make it work, but I am fat so, if you send me one copy I will be forced to move my ass to add some coil now and then to power up my pc to be able to play and I will burn the fat because of your generous gift, you could save my life... sort of.

Thank you.

Burakku Kenshi - August 31, 2015, 11:46 am

I would love to grab a copy of GTA V. I recently got into pc gaming with an old friend and I honestly like it more than consoles. The only thing that sucks is he plays GTA a lot and I don't have it. If I win a copy I would be ecstatic.

Superiorx3 - August 31, 2015, 11:46 am

I want a copy because I really want to mod the game. :)

Denitorious - August 31, 2015, 11:48 am

I'd like a copy because I know exactly how you felt as I went through the same. Sometimes when I get home from a busy day and just want to have some peace I play games. It is somewhat of a "fall back" zone for me.

Thanks for the give-away, dude, keep up being hq.

Silent Storm™ - August 31, 2015, 11:52 am

Thanks for the giveaway m8 ?

Heisenberg. - August 31, 2015, 12:01 pm

I would love a copy because back in the day when I was lured into the wildy with my rune pickaxe by some dude in full dragon armour telling me he could trim it -.- Let's just say I was a very gullible child haha.

Nah but for real, I've loved and own every single copy of GTA up to date wether on PC or on console and would like to get a chance to try out this one.

Thanks for the opportunity and this great gesture towards the Hackforums community,

Mr White ?

?pth?n - August 31, 2015, 12:03 pm

You remind me of myself, so here is why :)

When I was younger I played a lot more games than nowadays. My life changed and I have some more things to do, but I know your Runescape feeling. I played Runescape back in these days too and it was awesome! Must have been around 07-09 when I was most active I guess. I spent WAY TOO MUCH time on this game.. but sitting in school thinking of the best way to cut trees, mine some stupid coal ores or if I get a hilt drop in the afternoon was still awesome :D

The other "main game" I loved was GTA. Starting with GTA 2 (in the very early days), playing GTA 3 and spent a lot of nice hours with Vice City and San Andreas.

San Andreas was my favourite and I didn't play GTA after this time. Mainly it's because I can't really afford these games :/

Nowadays I could buy GTA IV for a cheap price, but the current one must be so much more awesome.

It would totally give me the feel I had in my childhood, that would be so awesome! :)

By the way, if you also give away the feel of Runescape few years back, let me know and lets go and get the Arma Hilt! :)

Great to see such generous giveaways, good luck to everyone ?

Aphen

Albert - August 31, 2015, 12:06 pm

I want a copy, mainly because I want to play with friends that own the game.

Matt Bomer™ - August 31, 2015, 12:07 pm

I only have CS 1.6 in my steam. I was always a fan of GTA VC and did not completed post 73% in it. I want to play 5 and get a hold of it.

vinzzard - August 31, 2015, 12:16 pm

I am big fan of all parts of this game. I still have disc of the first GTA. Somewhere was disc of teh GTA II - GTA III but can't find it. When I was 14-16 years, I loved playing on GTA:SA via SA-MP on RP mode, when you passed the exams to license of drive with friends, stay as gun dialer and etc. Never played on GTA IV on online, but didn't like a optimization on this part. I would very much like to try GTAV/Online as Multiplaying and just the plot ot this game.

Walt Disney™ - August 31, 2015, 12:18 pm

I deserve this as I'm an avid PC gamer and don't have it on PC yet! I bought a cracked account awhile ago, but It wasn't the smartest move. Hopefully I win and I can spend some time with friends.

I'll even play with you :3

Weebex - August 31, 2015, 12:26 pm

These might not be a good reason to some people, but recently upgraded my PC to last me till it's obsolete. GTA V would be a perfect candidate for testing how this upgrade will hold to max graphics and 60 fps.

Sheeple - August 31, 2015, 12:57 pm

I want a copy because I just bought an Nvidia gtx 970 because I have recently moved from console gaming to PC gaming. I've urged 99% of my friends I play console with to get PCs and told them why they were better, been playing with these kids for 4 years

I used all of my money just to buy a better pc so I can go on with gaming . xD

Warren Buffett - August 31, 2015, 2:07 pm

I deserve it because I would hate taking the chances to buy the game and not have my computer be able to handle this game. So I would like to hopefully get it on Steam and have it be able to work.

Neonowl - August 31, 2015, 2:07 pm

Would love a copy when I get a better rig :D

Hey, I know I am a noob with no rep and a low post count, but I just joined this website as a few friends referred me to it. Anyways, I hope you're still reading this. After reading this thread you brought back so many fucking memories I almost teared up. I miss the days of Runescape where after school my brother and I would gather all of our friends and we would all explore the wilderness together. I remember when we bought our first membership and were in awe when we saw all the member items and dragon items. I don't really know how I deserve GTA V but just reading your post was good enough for me. Thank you! :)

Tyler? - August 31, 2015, 4:55 pm

I'd mainly enjoy it since I'd be able to play with my roommate. He plays PC and I have hardly any friends to play with on console, so I never play it.

SentByGod - August 31, 2015, 5:08 pm

why i want this game?? i want to play with my friends! they have it on the pc but they play with my on the ps3 it would be good to play on the pc because they say it looks and feels smother !! hopefully i can play with them gl to everyone else!

xZkuToR - August 31, 2015, 6:08 pm

Thanks for hosting this iWatch, I built a new PC so I really hope I win this. It's GTX 660, fx 6300, 8gb ram, anyways, pretty good for me and I hope I'll win your GTA V :)

Ciraze - September 1, 2015, 2:04 am

I have been wanting to play it for such a long time, I would buy it but unfortunately it costs too much in Australia, way more than it does in USA. Exams are coming up I have not been able to play any games at all and spend my time studying or at school most of the day, I want something to do when I finish exams and start my holidays, why not play the game i've wanted for the longest time ?

Thank you for this.

Avocado - September 1, 2015, 2:15 am

Thanks for the giveaway, use to play runescape back in the days, still hands down the best game/community I've ever played. I LOVE gaming because it's the one thing I can come home too after a long day at work and know that I can rely on it to cheer me up. There is nothing better than having a great group of friends playing funny games, laughing over skype.

Sunlight - September 1, 2015, 3:22 am

My parents are too strict and won't allow me to buy any games. Following this, I don't have PayPal or another method of buying the games, which is annoying.

I only have Garry's mod at the moment from a friend so it'd be nice to be able to play a good game and be able to own it myself. I've never owned a GTA game before or really played it myself for that matter. I've wanted to get into some more games but I have no way of purchasing it. It'd be amazing to be able to own my own copy and be able to play with friends etc. I've watched videos and seen my friends play GTA and they're always having a blast, as there is multiple things you can do on the game. I'd love to be able to experience that for myself and be able to enjoy the game instead of always just watching it, which is the case for 90% of the games. The only games I've been able to properly enjoy are minecraft and unreal tournament. I've been procrastinating getting into games for ages now, owning steam for a few years but never doing anything with it, (Mostly because I couldn't buy games) but since a friend gifted me GMOD, I've finally started to get into more games and this would be a great opportunity for me to do so.

I enjoy playing games and don't have the opportunity to do so because of lack of funds and parents etc so this would be a great opportunity to be able to own a great game. Thanks for the contest and best of luck to everyone else. :)

Knight_Riderz - September 1, 2015, 6:52 am

I heard way too much about GTA V and i like how people hack others account and make sex animations , i wanna try that shit for once for real , well that kinda explains why i need this game

Daimao94 - September 1, 2015, 7:10 am

I'd love to get a copy.

I have a Geforce GTX 760 and I feel like I don't use it.

?Arrow-? - September 1, 2015, 7:23 am

I already have a copy of the game but my friend doesn't. He is does not have enough money to buy the game because he is currently playing off debt. I would love to have me and my mate play together running over hookers but I can't because of that reason.

Nikos554 - September 1, 2015, 7:37 am

I would like to get a copy of GTA V to play it with my girlfriend,we are both 17 years old avid gamers but she doesn't have any money to buy the game for herself as she bought me the game as a gift for our anniversary.

Dickie - September 1, 2015, 8:27 am

I have a 38 weeks pregnant wife, second child coming along in about 2 weeks. So my gaming time will be drastically reduced soon, so 2 weeks hammering GTAV would be awesome!

Tooth - September 1, 2015, 8:34 am

Never played GTA 5 at the pc, no one wants to lend me one :/

Remix™ - September 1, 2015, 8:36 am

I would like a copy because I have been playing GTA since san adreas on the original xbox and have played each one since.

I started out playing on an N64, PS1, and gameboy color and have moved to a PS2, Xbox 360, and now a gaming PC. I love being able to play GTAV on the 360, but I have more friends on PC who have it now but I don't have the money to blow on the game at the moment.

I've been playing videogames since I was 6 and I am 20 now so you can tell all I do is play haha

?Darky - September 1, 2015, 8:38 am

I would like to receive 1 GTA code because i'm not able to pay it myself because i only live with my mother and we are low on cash..

Slippin' Jimmy - September 1, 2015, 10:12 am

The game is so fun. I would like a copy to play with some friends and kick my Boss' ass at the game

_wind - September 1, 2015, 5:31 pm

I just don't have the money to spend on games. I've always been stuck playing a lot of free-to-play games; notable League of Legends, but after the server move, the game has been unplayable for me. I'm just here spending my summer bored out of my mind, with nothing to do. Having another game for me to play would really mean something, and would really brighten up the rest of my summer.

Thanks for the opportunity.

Lana Del Rey_ - September 1, 2015, 5:57 pm

Awesome! Thanks for giving people a chance to win this game. I have been looking forward to getting this game since it came out. It's currently on my wish list on my steam account. I recently got a gaming PC and don't have the money right now with College. Winning this would be awesome! Well that's all I got don't want to sugar coat anything, thanks bro for doing this!

Good luck everyone ?

Loiter Squad - September 1, 2015, 9:24 pm

I have never played on steam before so why not start it off with gta 5. The main reason I want this is because there are a lot of mods and glitches for pc that are amazing. Honestly I'm such a nerd for in game glitches like unattainable outfits and items, I just love them. On the ps4 their aren't that many new glitches. Also some of my friends have it on pc so it would be fun playing with them. Thank you for your time and good luck to everyone!

duane - September 1, 2015, 9:37 pm

You should hook me up with that because my mom got me GTAIII for PS2 when I was 13, parenting 101.

I will tell my descendants of this great man who gifted me GTA5 years later.

SIM-2830142 - September 1, 2015, 9:40 pm

I would really want to have GTA V on steam, all my friends have been playing it while i have been left out, cause i'm broke as hell, probably a HF ebook helps :)

Pops - September 1, 2015, 9:59 pm

Hmmmm I can't really think of a reason why I deserve a copy...

I just really loved playing GTA liberty city when I was a wee lad and it'd be cool to play the new version

Deez Nutz - September 2, 2015, 4:04 pm

I would like a copy 'cuz DEEZ NUTZ c;

Mewtwo - September 3, 2015, 5:04 am

I would love this GTA V copy because I've wasted all my money getting parts for my PC and without any of my favorite games on it, what's the point in PC gaming? This is one of my favorite games of all time, I played the game ever since it was launched on PS3 and I continue to play it on PS4 everyday. It's the only game I usually play all the time anyways :D.

Now I'm trying to save money for the Nicaragua trip fee I have to pay in order to join the team ($250) so I can help fundraise and eventually build homes for the poverty. Helping me get this game will save me the $60 from buying it :).

Bluffer - September 3, 2015, 12:19 pm

I have bad social anxiety as well, gaming helps me put that on the sidelines, I could really use a copy of GTA.

Meowth - September 3, 2015, 12:21 pm

I want a copy because I want to be able to play with my friends and because I am a broke college student (no money for games).

Kisame - September 8, 2015, 2:28 am

I have been hooked up to playing video games since I was a kid. Started off with some NES games like Contra, Mario, Double Dragon (if anyone remembers this game). Since then it has been an upward journey in the world of gaming for me. Later on i got myself a Nintendo Gameboy Advance SP and boy did I get hooked up to the legendary titles like Pokemon Fire Red, Pokemon Leaf Green, Pokemon Ruby, Sapphire, Emerald. Those were the days man. Even when I got a PC, I started playing the all time favorite WOLF - 3D, Roadrash and those elite titles back then. I still continue to play all the games I can. I don't just play AAA titles but, I also like to play some bootleg indie games like Papers Please, Surgeon Simulator, Lakeview Cabin etc. I deserve a copy of GTA V only because I missed out on the title when it was on discount and got myself hooked into other games and I actually used my cash to buy in game items (DOTA2 & CSGO, these games leech the life out of me) Over the course of a decade, I have seen games evolved into what they are now. Starting from text based adventures, to the first 2D game then the DOOM 3D hit title to various other AAA titles. It's been a joyful ride for me although it has created some problems in my social life (not that i care anymore because I am who I am). I am actually trying to pursue a career in video game industry if you're actually looking for someone who loves video games. I think spending hours and hours on games and not just playing them but, studying them should prove how passionate I am about video games which is why I am posting here. It's nice to see a fellow gamer doing something for the community and I wish that in future I am able to do something too just like you :)

LilHackers - September 8, 2015, 8:29 pm

I'd leave a copy because I've always been a big fan of the GTA franchise and I've recently ascended from the plebstation having some financial issues but the closes I have been to a real copy was a pirated one that crashes every 5 minutes.

Ki?rb?y? - September 9, 2015, 4:31 am

I want to be able to play with friends. I already "borrowed" GTA V and completed the story line and it was great. I'd buy it if I had the money.

Man wasn't the old Runescape the shit!? Not gonna lie, I did struggle a bit getting past tutorial island but once I did, it was open slather xD

If this contest is still open, I'd love a copy of GTA V if possible. Not saying I deserve this more than anyone else but I think it'd just be awesome to be able to play. The GTA series has brought some bangers to the table in the past, especially CJ and the boys at Grove Street and Niko in LS, so I'd be more than down to receive a copy bro! In a sense, I'd love to receive a copy of the game as It'd just bring back all the old memories of a casual hit and run, or robbing a bank and even just straight up gang wars. Up to you man but thats pretty much my reasoning (No point in sugar-coating it haha)!!
