Vouch! I'm using this tool and it works so good. Love it! <3

hotlinejambo - September 1, 2015, 9:17 am

It's a pretty good tool, I use it for mass messaging.

MrGeneralQ - September 2, 2015, 6:03 am

Thnx guys! Happy to hear that you are happy with it :)

It's way to complicated.. First there is a setup, then you can't use any features unless you registered on the website. After you successfully logged in, there aren't many features. Only Mass Messaging and a very basic spambot witch crashes if you enter to much messages (at least for me). Then there is the Auto Responder / Skypebot witch didn't work for me.

So, there are definitely thinks which could be done better. Furthermore I'm not feeling confident about giving this tool admin permissions (which are required to start it).

Hello,

After all the things you mentioned you should check out the rich mood editor, you can add a spinner to your skype mood and let it blink etc.

Admin permissions are required for update & crash-free purposes.

What are the problems you are getting? We will fix them.

MrGeneralQ - September 2, 2015, 1:49 pm

The problems you said are not on appearing on my pc. So pls let us now what you did and when it crashed. Thnx

Admin is basically because it needs to write stuff in the program files directory which is Admin-only
