Thread: MyAwards - View Recently Given Awards

Hydra - September 1, 2015, 2:02 pm

I recall a link that showed all the recently given awards. Not something like this: <https://hackforums.net/myawards.php?awid=1>. It consisted of all awards sorted by most recent. I can't figure it out but I think it had to do with myawards.php?X=Y (Something being in X and Y) but I can't figure it out. Anyone know what it is?

Just click on any award name and it should display all owners. Date of receipt is in ascending order as well.

As I said in OP, there was a link that showed ALL the awards sorted by most recent. I'm clearly aware that exists but there was this known link that listed all the recently given awards.

Check the Titans chat. If you want, I'll make a userscript to do this.

Doctor Blue - September 1, 2015, 3:24 pm

I'm pretty sure it's been removed. Looking at MyAwards 2.4 it says `if($mybb->input['all'])`, but if you check out <https://hackforums.net/myawards.php?all=1> it doesn't work.

That's what I thought. I was viewing the MyAwards code and I saw the string. Tried it in the URL & nothing happened. Either this or Omni's changed where it's located.

It's funny because I tried `?all=1` and `?awid=all` before even checking the source code.

I was about to just try that as well. I can't see source code so I can't really help you guys further.

Wires - September 1, 2015, 3:32 pm

This is the possible code from the latest MyAwards:

Code else if($mybb->input['all']) {

    add_breadcrumb($lang->user_awards);

    eval("$awbody .= \'" . $templates->get("my_awards_page_all") . "\'");

    $query = $db->query("

        SELECT u.username, au., a.

        FROM ".TABLE_PREFIX."myawards a

        LEFT JOIN ".TABLE_PREFIX."myawards_users au ON (au.awid=a.awid)

        LEFT JOIN ".TABLE_PREFIX."users u ON (u.uid=au.awuid)

        ORDER BY au.awutime

    ");

This is the string within MyAwards. Pretty sure it's either been changed or removed. I've tried all sorts of URLs including the ones Dr. Blue's already included in his post.

Tonight - September 1, 2015, 3:33 pm

I remember this being here too? Would be neat to see again but maybe it was removed due to the high amount of OMC, Emerald Donator, Doge, etc. type awards flooding it?

It has to have been moved or deleted. There's nothing in the code.

I don't think there has ever been a page for that on HF, I remember it being suggested years back but it got denied by omni.

It existed, I'm sure of it. Years ago, the HF News Team used it. That's how they reported new awards without Weekly Reports existing.

Not sure why it got removed but yes, the link is ?all=1. I remember that being the string for it.

What you are thinking of was on the stats.php page and Omni disabled it. He obviously had a reason too

Check any forum with it, and go to the stats.php page and you'll see it

Wirt - September 1, 2015, 5:45 pm

I am 99.99% sure it's still enabled, because when Salty Bacon had this awards contest/drawing, he sent me a link and said "keep refreshing". And it would show all of the awards he gave away sorted by time. It wasn't one specific award, it was all the individual awards. It also included the name of whomever bought it and gifted it.

That was a couple weeks ago. I don't have the link anymore sadly.

Check all of your browser history and filter Hackforums as the main priority. Find it that way.

It was a month ago now probably. There's no way I am going to be able to find it.

You probably could if you tried hard enough. How many times have you viewed an award page from HF?

c x y k - September 1, 2015, 6:36 pm

Seems as though since nobody has found it, I'll just do a script. I won't release it publically, however.

I've already made it for iHydra, I'm just laying in bed. Plus, I like actually serving a purpose.

But yeah, that too. Ssh.

Because it's Kondax and Kondax does as Kondax wishes.

This is a thing, I saw it on another forum but I don't remember what one. I've been asking around myself so I can add it to another forum.

Because it queries 79 pages easy time you use it, I'm surprised Omni hasn't booted my butt from the reputation plugin yet.

Tidas - September 2, 2015, 12:35 am

It was removed.

That is from 2012, and I think anyone that thought they saw it lately was just linked to 1 award's page and is remembering incorrectly.
