Thread: Scammed by iWatch \(UID 156256\) for 366\$ BTC

Xsal_Ice - September 2, 2015, 11:42 am

I have been scammed by iWatch \(UID 156256\).

This is the selling thread. He sells a method to get free Steam games. He told he is selling it only one time but sold it now two times and keeps selling it lol. Also there is no method its a scam.

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4972776>

His BTC My payments went to:

<https://blockchain.info/address/13tsWVFi4JHpuBb1KPCtcaVmFagTKbm54K>

I paid 2x ~185$ from my BTC adress

The other 2 x 250$ is from scamming the member Kuvings. I am writing with him on skype and also on HF. He also got scammed and will open a deal dispute tomorrow.

iWatch was suggesting me to start with the method after i pay him. I just sent the BTC like we said and he needed to go for 1h cook a meal for his mother. It was ok for me. But after 2h still nothing happened and the other guy wrote me that he got scammed by him.

Now he tries me to close this dispute.

He is a scammer. You are all warned.

Here are some chat logs. I have even more but i think thats the most important ones:

iWatch Wrote:Xsal_Ice Wrote:iWatch Wrote:Xsal_Ice Wrote:iWatch Wrote:Xsal_Ice Wrote:iWatch Wrote:Xsal_Ice Wrote:iWatch Wrote:Xsal_Ice Wrote:iWatch Wrote:Xsal_Ice Wrote:iWatch Wrote:Xsal_Ice Wrote:Is there a possibility we speak about this?

I am really interested. I have atm only close to 400$ BTC cause i invested on some other businesses.

I would give you of first earnings 90% so you get your money back fast.

I have time and use the method often and make most of it, so you can be sure you will get your money back.

Let me know if we can do any business together.

Thanks

Let's say that $400 BTC + 50% of all your earnings until you've paid me a total of $2000 USD? How does that sound?

Sounds good for me. I would accept this and if this works u get ur money back fast.

How can i get any proof the method is working? Could you show it to me via tv or similar?

There's tons of proof on the thread (other threads), and I will get more GTA V

's later today to show additional proof.

Only GTA V or also others?

Can I see a real live proof before paying? Or we use a middlemen?

Thanks! You can get any game you wish, I've been doing GTA V's lately because they're 1) popular and 2) highly valuable, meaning easy to sell.

I'll post more proof on the thread later today, and I cannot accept MM as some of the funds will be invested in teaching you the method over TeamViewer/Skype.

Yes ok i understand. But you need to understand me too. I got scammed 2 times this year on HF. I need any securities. Would you go first by showing me first part of it, i pay and you show me the rest what i need to start?

Or something like that?

You can pay 50% upfront, I will briefly explain how it works, then you pay the rest 50%.

Lets do it.

First questions:

- Can everyone do this? From every country also?

- Blackhat? will the police fck me anal?

- What do i need? Paypal / ID Card and so on?

- Do I need anything special for it?

1. Yes, any country etc.

2. No, the police won't do anything.

3. Nothing related to financial information like that.

4. Not really, aside a Steam account.

ok can we start? Skype? Teamspeak? Where do we meet?

How long will teaching take? Also you will not sell any other copies, right?

Teaching will be 1-on-1 over TeamViewer/Skype and will take 10-20 minutes or more/less.

What payment processor will you pay the first 50% in?

BTC, please.

My adress

<https://blockchain.info/address/13HTQPT9ppv5fxYxKyPGdESwja4atq5qTs>

Alright,

50% here: 13tsWVFi4JHpuBb1KPCtcaVmFagTKbm54K

And then we'll get to work.

money sent. As we agreed on, I will now explain briefly how this method is carried out:

There's a site(s)/place(s)/client(s) that matches ANY other price (using bots), so let's assume you want a cheap GTA V copy, you'd just get a copy, go to the place and list it for $0.02 - then the bot would match it to $0.01, and wouldn't notice for atleast 10 minutes, thus giving you enough time to clean it!

Please send the rest 50% here: 13tsWVFi4JHpuBb1KPCtcaVmFagTKbm54K

And I'll get ready to coach you.

He is a scammer. He sells nothing. It is a good-bye scam. He will leave after this.

I've been working on preparing the method for you for the last 2 hours, and you keep PM'ing me saying you 'regret' your purchase, and that you want a refund.

But why... Why after I've spent so much time preparing it for you? Why are you so impatient? Are you in a rush?

I'm also sick IRL, so your PM's just make me more upset and gives me mental pain, you don't really know how good of a deal you've made, but you couldn't wait more than 2 hours before freaking out because I was preparing it for you?

You sure you're above the minimal required age to join this forum?

Xsal_Ice - September 2, 2015, 11:50 am

FOR THE LAST 2 HOURS?

You were cooking for your mother for the last 2 hours!

You purchased it for 2 hours ago, I've been cooking food for my mother and been doing some homework in the meantime while preparing an account for you that would be used with the method.

I haven't scammed you at all, you're literally giving me no time to even prepare it for you? I have a feeling you just want to make me look bad instead of actually making money.

Stop threahtening me in PM's, I simply don't care. What I'm offering you is something you don't find every day, so don't expect to 'boss' around and think you can threahten me because you simply cannot wait 2 hours.

Thanks for your understanding, I literally have been wasting all the time I could be using to prepare it for him, to simply respond to his threats and crying in PM's.

Xsal_Ice - September 2, 2015, 11:54 am

He sells a method 1 copy he wanted to sell to one person.

But instantly after i send he sold "another method" which can do exactly the same to another guy. And also he dont received a shit and wrote me he will open a deal dispute. Wait i screenshot it from skype and paste :)

Edit:

Yes i give u NO time to prepare it cause i dont want this shit.

GIVE ME MY MONEY BACK U DONT UNDERSTAND THIS OR WHAT? U CANT READ? omg... fuckin hf skidscammers.

Everybody's laughing at you dude, if you buy a method that'll make you more money than you can simply count, how do you expect to get it instantly?

I started selling this today, I cannot possibly have scammed anyone when it has been up for about 2 hours?

How do you expect me to get finished ASAP with your request when you constantly PM me?

Yes, I spent well over one hour cooking for my mom as we're both sick, and I was browsing HF on my iPad while making some food for my mother.

Show some love for mothers man, aren't you a real motherlover?

2 hours of my cooking isn't worth $50, if I don't get a hug by my mother, your offer is simply not considerable. Sorry that we weren't able to do yet another smooth deal.

Why are you insulting and threatening me? Why should I refund you when you're constantly harassing me, whilst I'm doing my best trying to help you achieve 'online success' at the same time as I'm sick IRL.

I haven't scammed you, and as I stated in the PM's; I am willing to couch you tomorrow if you close/remove this thread as it's invalid, but if you wanna keep the false rumours up, then that's your choice of weapon.

Again, doesn't hurt me at all - I was trying to offer you a legitimate and awesome method to obtain games free of charge, you can see on my threads that I know what I'm talking about.

Sarcastic Desires - September 2, 2015, 12:22 pm iWatch was selling it for $1500, your buy was $366, so it's understandable that iWatch sold it more than once.

I just don't feel like giving you a method that'll earn you enough money to possibly buy anything you want, when you're creating a dispute thread on me after 2 hours of making the payment, when I've clearly told you why it takes time.

Agreed. Even if the service was real, iWatch's attitude is way too unpredictable to be able to establish a long-term business relationship.

When I PM'ed him and asked him about the two other current ongoing disputes, he simply dismissed them by saying they were invalid without providing any real input.

Imho iWatch is just being a scamming dick in this scenario, OP clearly asked for a refund - stop putting excuses and give the man his money back. Nobody cares if you're sick or if you're cooking your mother food etc. If you really wanted you could've kept an 'cancellation fee' of like $10-20 and returned the rest, that would've meant you lost nothing.

Instead all these excuses and threats on his part seem like typical scammer behavior to me.

I don't think iWatch was in the wrong here*. The reason why he wants to finish your account on his gold mine method is because he sold it to you at such a low price. Almost secured another deal with another member here for $500 too, from what I read. You had the chance to wait until tomorrow for the method.

OP, defamation aside, your conduct here was down-right pathetic. You left something out in your second series of conversation with the seller. I'd imagine you were belittling him further in that exchange of words? If you kept the disparaging bullshit to a minimum and asked for a refund in a professional manner, iWatch likely would have given you a refund until he completed the setup.

I'm not vouching for the seller or anything here, just stating my opinion on the issue. I'm also not trying to hurt you Xsal, if you calmed down that would have helped.

Spoiler (Click to View) Though, iWatch could have refunded a portion of the payment when asked for it. A deposit of sorts to confirm that the buyer will stick with the deal and not just run off. Hard to really read the scales on this one.

*though iWatch isn't either.

Thank you for your post and yes, i calmed down.

The facts:

- I paid for a method he sells only once. I paid now 400$ but I was told to give him 50% of my earnings till i paid the full 1500$
- He suggested me to start doing "bank" after i pay. I paid instantly. But suddenly he has to do other things. He never told me it takes some days or hours to prepare any account.
- He contacted another guy he sold his gold-mine method and begged to dont open a deal dispute. The other guy contacted me. He will also open tomorrow a deal dispute cause he had done the same shit to him

I will change / remove all my posts on his thread and this one here once i got a refund or the product will be served. I dont think he will serve. Its an exit-scam.

LOLfaggots - September 2, 2015, 1:54 pm

It's just stupid that you paid for a method and waited only 2 hours before making a scam report. You should give him more time to set-up the method.

Also i don't see how hes scamming, if i were to sell a method and someone would make a scam report of me for not delivering it in 2 hours, i'd pause the deal too.

However, i think iWatch should add ToS saying that if for some reason the buyer wants refund before the method is set up, he'll get 50% back. or something like that.

Following this, hope it gets sorted...

Was about to send 1500$ to iWatch aswell, after a long conversation...

So far i think iWatch is in the wrong tbh, i think OP should calm down, so iWatch will continue to work on the product, and then wait till tomorrow and see what reveals..

Thread should stay up, even though i think 2 hours is a little short time to start posting scam-reports...

iWatch wants OP to delete the thread which is not really reasonable considering that OP didn't receive the product yet. He clearly is scamming OP at the moment by denying him the method he bought. iWatch shouldn't care about the scam report as long as he is an legitimate seller who can deliver the product.

Whether he scammed or not, no one will ever know unless he wants to help you despite how you're acting. If he was legit, you probably pissed him off to the point where he doesn't even want to continue talking to you for this deal. If I was the one who sold you the method and you opened a scam report in 2 hours, I would probably tell you to fuck off and give you nothing and just take the -reps. You should probably contact him in a more calm manner whether you believed he scammed you or not. Maybe you might get somewhere and earn money, or maybe he scammed you.

Personally I wouldn't have jumped the gun so quickly to accuse him on scamming despite his past. Waiting 24h would have been a good idea. All any of this does is hurt you if your deal with him was legitimate, but I'm giving him the benefit of being real and not a scammer.

SIM-2270048 - September 2, 2015, 2:57 pm

But after all if he is selling something he has to be prepared. Not prepare after payment.

No shit he's a scammer, he was claiming to make $15k with a Steam method, showed ZERO actual proof and asked $1500 and people were still thinking of dealing with him?? I'm really sorry you got scammed man but that's the most obvious scam attempt I've ever seen -,-

I mean he literally posted that he was selling a Steam method for like $300 the day before he posted that he was selling it for $1500, just trying to make it look even better, obviously it was fake all along

Derpy derp

When will HF learn that reputation means absolutely nothing when dealing with large amounts of cash, it's a bunch of broke kids that will jump on any opportunity to make money.

If iWatch is selling some thing he should be prepared, it was a method.

He cant just sell some thing he had in mind, it was his fault for taking time to prepare after payment.

But after all who knows if he's method is even legit.

Why won't you just refund OP iWatch?

Baysick - September 2, 2015, 11:05 pm

I like how iWatch completely stopped responding after a few more users come out to state their opinions about his shady ass business proposition.

Refund the man his btc, keep $10-20 to yourself as a fee for wasting time.

Your're asking him to remove this thread in order to get the money back, well, let me ask you, if you're not scared then why are you going so far? Refund the man his money and the thread generally closes.

You're giving yourself off as a horrible member of the community and just sets you apart so no one wants to further do deals with you, unless they don't do prior research and just jump straight in.

This is why I hate these 12 year old sellers in the marketplace. You either give OP his money back if you're not happy with him, or give him his product. That's it.
