Thread: Voting: August 2015

Froggy - September 2, 2015, 8:49 pm

Credits to iHydra for making the official contest graphics!

Welcome to the Member of the Month voting thread for August 2015!

Sorry for the delay, I was out of town.

Member of the Month is a competition that awards one special member each month for their contributions throughout the community. Every member has the potential to win the award, but the final decision is made by the combined efforts of the user base and forum staff. To learn more about how the competition works, click here!

The finalists have been chosen! The Voting phase begins today and ends on Tuesday, September 8, 2015!

This is your chance to determine who wins the award. You may only vote for one person per month, so make your vote count! Feel free to post in this thread noting your reason for your vote, but it's not necessary.

Please read Member of the Month - Explained for rules and regulations.

Vote in the poll for one of the following members:

May the best member win!

Tonight - September 2, 2015, 9:28 pm

King of Hearts has three contributions listed which is one more than Mesh, therefore he is more deserving.

Cameron - September 2, 2015, 9:31 pm

My vote goes to MeshCollider, he's played a massive role in getting OMC to where it is today.

Projec7 - September 2, 2015, 9:31 pm

King of hearts. He contributes a lot in brotherhood.

Terry A. Davis - September 2, 2015, 9:36 pm

I had to flip a coin to choose. Looks like Mesh gets it due to OMC

Krew - September 2, 2015, 10:02 pm

I thought MOTM needed at least 4 participants to get a vote?

Balding - September 2, 2015, 10:13 pm

I'm going with King on this one. His tutorials and contributions have helped me a lot.

SIM-2015410 - September 2, 2015, 11:21 pm

Why do I only get 2 contributions and KOH gets 3 lol. I have done more than 2 helpful posts this month ?

Roger Waters - September 2, 2015, 11:34 pm

I voted for Froggy this month. Best of luck to all candidates.

Hexicidal - September 3, 2015, 12:26 am

I don't want anyone to win, and I'm not going to vote. This is pitiful.

I could give a list of 10 other members to include, and it's a shame others don't go out of their way to nominate.

I agree that there are always HQ members that slip under the radar and are never nominated, and it is a shame. It is all up to other members to find those they think are worthy of it and nominate them. I am glad to see that at least my only competitor this month really deserves the award, because I really hate it when the winners are just the most well known regardless of their contributions. At least some members win the award for good reason :)

On that note, good luck to King of Hearts, you truly deserve recognition for your contributions ?. I thought for a while that I was going to have no competition at all haha.

By the way Hex, you had the chance to nominate one of the members you listed this month too you know ?

This is a direct result of using 'first past the post' which ultimately favors only two candidates even if there is a plethora of people running. The system will also knock people down to only 2 candidates, as that's the threshold for a majority--even if small.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=s7tWHJfhiyo> <- For problems with First past the post

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3Y3jE3B8HsE> <- An alternative voting system, which would easily allow multiple candidates a fair, reliable and majority-giving election.

How it can be implemented on HF, I've no idea. I made a suggestion about it:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3142719>

But given that Omni has more important things to do than worry about the statistics of a single voting system, I don't believe it'll be fixed.

Not sure if your post is serious, but the fact that mentors get sitewide recognition automatically earns them more exposure than your average Hack Forums member, leading them to almost invariably lead in MotM because of people voting based on recognition. @Baldcat and etc, I appreciate the enthusiasm, but I myself am part of Divine. I can assure you that I went through and read all the skype conversations and have not found anything suggesting members of divine, as a group, are asking to vote for mesh. As far as I can remember individuals are allowed to ask others to vote as long as the nominee is not involved.

With that being said, I would like to thank reve4 neeuQ for nominating me. It's been a great run. For those that were watching the polls, it was a great show, for lack of a better word.

Congratulations Mesh ?

And everyone else. I'm fine with the way things turned out and I think that's what matters. Mesh truly deserves this as he has been nominated multiple times in the past and come close to winning. He has done much more than I.

@Baldcat and etc, I appreciate the enthusiasm, but I myself am part of Divine. I can assure you that I went through and read all the skype conversations and have not found anything suggesting members of divine, as a group, are asking to vote for mesh. As far as I can remember individuals are allowed to ask others to vote as long as the nominee is not involved.

The vote changed as soon as I closed it and then I accidentally reopened it again while people were voting.

I thought there was a minimum post requirement or something to vote in polls Always thought you had to be ub3r for some reason, either way all this opening/closing shit is a mess lmao. Before has it never been this close or something?

Thanks man, I couldn't have hoped for a better competitor and winning is bittersweet because you really deserved it too. I promise that I will nominate you as soon as you are eligible again. ?

Mesh got my vote. It's very unlikely that OMC would be where it is today without his assistance. It would much more likely be dead in a hole somewhere. He's also incredibly knowledgeable, helpful, and all around an amazing person.
