I recommend mysisterspooty.com

But for real, why don't you go out and help before you ask for this. Lots of HQ people are in need of these things too.

I usually just use pornhub. Find ones that dont show faces and if theres any logo's just simply crop it out with Windows Movie maker or something.

If not just use hypercam and record live shows.

Calm down everykid. What's your native language? Spanish? I'm fluent in spanish.

Holá, un niño.

OT: Just stop replying to the thread. It's so off the original topic now.
