Post in the Currency Exchange section asking for UB3R in return for PayPal. (Pretty sure that's where you post it, correct me if I'm wrong).

Posting to remind myself of this thread, as I paid with Paypal when I purchased my ub3r a long time ago and am curious to see if they did in fact change it to BTC only. Sorry I'm not of help OP, all I can really tell you is that it wasn't always like that.

It says it accepts BTC/PP

There's a possibility you're in a country that Omniscient has blocked from sending Paypal payments.

You're in a country that omni doesnt like with paypal

Just get it exchanged to BTC, your country is probably blocked.
