I got a one day trial to try out the product and so far it doesn't seem to be the best. I hit the max generating limit and I think that is fine for a trial account but I did it on bangbros.. (~ ? °) because I am a big fan (~ ? °) but when I did it I see that all the accounts the generator gave were dead and all public ones on pastebin. So far it looks like the generator is just using public accounts / sources...

Edit: I got some new gen's today and sadly the same has happened there has been more public and dead accounts and for the high price of 14.99 I wouldn't buy this.

You a member of this account generator? It seems you just copied the list of accounts. $14.99 way too high for a generator like this tbh.
