Thanks for the link, too bad it doesn't work in other countries.

Right before the payment they force me to order from their French website 1and1.fr where it's a little bit more expensive (1.19€ instead of 0.18$).

Thanks. Same happened for me, MomoGunz. But I loaded up a US VPN and it worked fine.

As Dexu5 said, try asking a friend to do it for you or use a VPN.

Thanks for the link. My country wasn't available, but with little help from random name generator I was able to successfully buy real cheap domain!
