Yes and no but its best if u got a extra $13 to spend.

Visualize - September 8, 2015, 10:58 pm

In my opinion this is very solid method, and I am pretty impressed on how clever this is. The concept is not necessarily completely unique, but Bot Market has refined a concept to something that I consider a genius strategy. This is semi autopilot, but the work to maintain your profits is minimal. Like most methods, the profit you obtain is determined by how much work you put in. If you are looking for some easy income with a little work (most of the work is at the start up, the rest is SUPER easy), then this may very well be your go-to method. However, if you put a lot more time in than everyone else, you will definitely see the fruits of your labor.

The beauty of this strategy is that it taps into a goldmine. You have all the elements of a killer niche, including a wide audience, a constant demand, and the best part probably is the small amount of work that is required to maintain this. After the initial set up which might take you 30 minutes to an hour, you really only need to spending 15 minutes a day to ensure you have a constant flow of profit. This isn't just some eBook where you read a bunch of text and you are expected to pave your own path. Bot Market is there to mentor you and provide tips on how to be more successful. While he taught me the method he pointed out a few specific points that I would not have paid any attention to if I just read a standard eBook. This is pivotal as it helps optimize your time, and ultimately helps you earn more.

Like OP said, this is greyhat so that is something you should consider. When Bot Market explains this to his buyers, he uses the analogy that it is as unethical as eWhoring which I can agree with. This isn't anything as extreme as blackmailing someone, but at the end of the day it is still unethically wrong so this may not be for you if you want completely honest income, or you are trying to have a straight moral compass. Furthermore let's get into investments. Investments are not actually required, but I would highly recommend it as it only helps you earn more. You don't need it right at the start, so you can use first make money with the method then reinvest which is completely fine. If you have up to $20 to spend on the method, then I would suggest you go for it. You should make your money back and more after your first day anyway.

In conclusion, this is one of the few methods I am very surprised with its quality. Everything is logical to why it works and I wouldn't see anyone getting lost and not earning, especially with Bot Market's guidance. I feel like this has a possibility to get saturated, but you should be able to milk this and make some crazy profit if you start right away. The price right now is unbeatable, and beats out any eBook on the market

Unique method, no risk.
Yeah its not really gray hat

(Sep 9, 2015 02:44 PM)Hound Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Just purchased. It's a great method, but innovation is key to making the big bucks.

It's well worth what you paid for; you just can't be a lazy individual however. I'll post back soon.
Thanks for your review

(Sep 9, 2015 04:14 PM)yungloungegod Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I setup the method and took a shower, after the shower and maybe 15m I made over my money back. Once it pays out I will show the funds
Glad to hear your making money man

(Sep 11, 2015 12:18 PM)EstolceMan Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Bought this last night and I can see this making some money. Will take a little setup but does run on almost auto-pilot. A small investment will really help this method succeed. Botmarket is very friendly on skype and has helped me with any issue I've had. I'll update this with payout pictures once I get some income. Thanks
Thanks for the kind works man cant wait to see your earnings

(Sep 11, 2015 06:05 PM)Aeotic. Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I just bought this about an hour ago, I haven't had time to set it up yet (it'll only take 30 - 45 minutes to set up) but I can see it making some cash! Definitely make your money back, as long as you put the work in!

Very true and thanks for your purchase

(Sep 11, 2015 09:01 PM)monksu Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I bought this method today. I can say that it is totally unique. I have bought several methods in HF and some blackhat forums, never seen this one. It is not saturated, and it can basically never be saturated. The support and explanation of the method from OP has been amazing. He helps to set everything up, it takes like 30+ mins for it all. And once it's up, it's autopilot.

I'd say fk e-books, like 95% of them are a scam, least what I've experienced, and my experience is pretty wide. The most legit way is getting straight coaching from the method maker.

I'll be soon posting my earnings.

(Sep 11, 2015 11:05 PM)jj114 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Just got all the info on this and I have to say this sounds foolproof.

I can definitely see myself making a decent amount of money with this pretty easily, I'll post updates in a few days.

You really got something here BotMarket, GLWS!
Thanks for the feedback
