Thread: Anime Adventures Official Lounge Thread

Tasemu - September 7, 2015, 10:52 pm

Hey, we did this once before and it was a great tool for moving random chatter into one thread and cleaning up the general noise in the forum. I'm going to implement this in again because its starting to get ridiculous. General chatter threads will be locked and you will have a post from me telling you to get your ass in here (in a friendly way).

cuts red ribbon

Wasn't the AA lounge closed by Omni or something?

It was :c

Jessica Jung - September 7, 2015, 10:54 pm

Sometimes I ask myself why do I keep watching this crap

Vip?r - September 7, 2015, 10:55 pm

The AA lounge was closed because omni said it was too lq, hopefully this time around it will be different.

Tasemu - September 7, 2015, 10:55 pm

Aye it was, If he is still of the same opinion now then he can junk it again. But until that point, this will be used to clean up the section for as long as possible. This time I think its pretty evident that a lq thread is better than a lq section.

Ienaos - September 7, 2015, 10:56 pm

Hello my friends that I see here when I visit this section!

Envy - September 7, 2015, 10:58 pm

Might as well get on the first page and get back to marathoning HxH.

L?gic - September 7, 2015, 11:00 pm

This should be useful, good job on reopening this ?

Houtarou - September 7, 2015, 11:16 pm

Hopefully this helps clean up the whole section because right now it's basically just people asking for recommendations.

Zyptic - September 7, 2015, 11:16 pm

Hi everyone, I'm pretty new here. Tasemu long time no see ;)

Heya man. Long time no see. :)

?I???ry - September 8, 2015, 6:20 am Glad to see this back. I hope Omni doesn't junk this one. Thanks Tas :)

Duyere - September 8, 2015, 7:44 am

Great to see the AA Lounge back. Hopefully this stops some of the stupid threads and misc discussions.

Ang?I - September 8, 2015, 7:58 am

I would honestly be surprised if Omni allowed this again.

Funtage - September 8, 2015, 8:18 am

I know he doesn't like section lounges all too much, based on what he did to the Upgraded Members Lounge ~2 years ago.

Is this really your 5,000th post? ?

Crya - September 8, 2015, 10:45 am

Honestly without the lounge thread, the AA forums went downhill and really LQ more then it already was.

I hope that this would be able to stay.

Agreed. I'm glad it's back for now.

I'm liking that there are HQ threads coming out right now.

iMew - September 8, 2015, 11:01 am

Let's sacrifice some virgins to Omni in order to let this thread stay, this section has plenty of them after all. :^)

Jokes aside, I do think that AA as a whole needs the lounge as something to catch recommendation requests and other topics that don't promote a lot of discussion, and I hope that Omni gives this a second thought. It'd be unfortunate if he locked/deleted this.

With that said, I need someone to motivate me to watch more anime again, I've watched about four shows this entire year.

I'd be rather, scared right now. Best of luck with this thread.

Looks like everyone must post HQ replies then ?

Duyere - September 8, 2015, 12:20 pm

I mean at the end of the day we could just blame Tasemu.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)No but I hope Omni will allow this as long as we keep posts sensible to the forum. Meaning no non-AA related chatter.

Edit: To add further significance to this thread, I am going to post a song. I mean I could make a thread instead since it is sensible to the section but instead I could just simplify things and post it here without creating unnecessary spam threads.

HINT HINT IF OMNI EVER READS THIS

I wasn't around when the first lounge thread was up, and I know it got taken down, but I hope this time around, I can actually be apart of it and it won't get taken down.

See, it's posts like this that caused the original one to be closed. Don't be post-whoring assbats and ruin it for everyone please.

On that note, great to see this back. Hopefully it makes this subforum a little more organized.

Tasemu - September 8, 2015, 6:21 pm

I've shot a pm to omni, before i even started. Use ya brains people.

Yeah, I figured that. I just hope he doesn't change his mind.

Overlord is getting pretty enjoyable for me to be honest. Didn't think I'd like it.

Tasemu - September 8, 2015, 10:59 pm

Overlord? I have only been watching Gangsta, Gate, Gintama and DragonBall. How's Overlord?

I was thinking it'd be a 3/10, but after watching it for a while I'd rate it a 6/10. It's not good, but still better than I anticipated.

Still have to catchup with Gangsta. Haven't started DBS yet.

Ran - September 8, 2015, 11:23 pm

Well I have to say Konan is hot anyways I'm glad to see an AA lounge now. I can post all my thoughts on anime girls on here X). So uhh anyone else get a boner when watching High School DxD?
