Polio - September 14, 2015, 7:23 pm

If you could send an e-mail to your 12 year old self, what would it be?

Mine

Code Hello, this is yourself from the year 2015. We have been given a chance to improve our lives by sending ourself a message. Please convince NAME to buy you a Powerball ticket and make sure to use these numbers. Also, stop watching porn, it will ruin your life and it's a terrible addiction. Also, you're just now discovering SITE, never go to it, your life will be consumed by that and forums. Talk to her, she's really into you and won't be for long if you keep pushing her away. Also, make an app for Google Play and Apple Appstore and name it "Snapchat". The idea is to take a picture with your frontal or rear camera and you can send it to a desired person for 1-10 seconds. There's also an option to add a small line of text, you're able to draw, etc. Perfect the fuck out of it and you will be a billionaire in no time. Also, make sure to release it before July. You only have a month. :)

You, from the future Wrote: You'll build your own computer together with dad and thoroughly enjoy it
You'll start studying at Radius College to be come a programmer and you'll have your very own laptop, so that's fun

You promise yourself to take good care of yourself but have a hard time doing it even though you'll manage

You want to move to LA, USA as soon as possible and you don't want to live in a rich neighborhood or own expensive stuff yet still have a decent amount of money

You won't spend alot of time at dad's in the future so make the best of it now

You'll have a habit for imagining things in life that won't happen

You'll have to switch schools 3 times so prepare yourself for that shit man

You'll lose most of the friends you have right now either because you part ways or they become massive cunts

Sorry to break it to you but you'll be sad and stoic most of the time and have ups and downs in mood

Enjoy life while you can matey

There's alot more I would tell my younger self but can't put in all in here

?Alexander - September 15, 2015, 2:30 am

don't flatter yourself

ImPerfectPersona - September 15, 2015, 3:09 am

Dear Curious Multi-layered Twig Child,

Spoiler (Click to View)

Your Dad is retarded, and don't be afraid of him the worst that could happen is you get choked slammed or punched in the mouth or something you'll be fine, probably. Let him know exactly what is bothering you every time, well every time he asks you don't wanna get fucked up too much. Don't let him brainwash us. Ask questions, Demand change, get used to screaming and crying (yeah that'll raise all the red flags), don't you dare attempt to stop feeling that'll break us. Also stop lying to therapists and psychiatrists it's to our detriment, tell them EVERYTHING don't bitch out and make up some shit. Pay more attention to how your father cooks and pay even more attention to how your Uncle cooks ask them what they do, that shit is useful. Relax, don't be purposely stiff its hard to break out of. Have good/perfect posture we're the best act like it. Date your mirror its ok. Take care of your skin, take care of your hair, and eat food (HAHAHAHAHA... please). Don't feel obligated to science (although its cool af!), learn art too, actually write those stories down. Don't let people define us by our past, and Don't let people try to tell you what you like and don't like. Don't allow the pessimists to take hold, ignore the world its problems are too stressful for us. Don't Let any of them convince you to sabotage us, time is to precocious for that. If you're drunk at the beach don't swim in the ocean and bring water. Risks take them. Don't get lazy. Don't play with water, makers, and paint pens, its not a good idea at all. Never buy anything from Wish.

With love,

Narcissism and etc.

PS. send one of these to our 7 year old self make sure to pass on enlightenment.

PSS. Yeah we've turned that corner and accepted the madness, just roll around in it or something.

Felt like we didn't say anything meaningful/this was a waste of time.

Dear 12-year-old Exige,

First off, that girl that comes along in 9th grade, don't do it. She may be pretty, and she may seem sweet, but eventually, she turns evil, and yea you and her are together for a long long time, but eventually, literally 3 days after senior year high school, after 4 years, she'll leave you. Oh yea, and not even a year after that, you find out she's married and pregnant, so yea, don't do it.

Secondly, INVEST IN FACEBOOK dammit. And withdraw your investments around 2014 to be safe. You can thank me by becoming me and emailing this to your 12-year-old self again to continue the loop. You're welcome.

(P.S That one girl you eventually run into, around the time you turn 20, she has two kids, don't do it either. her kids are nice, but she just wants your money. I'll say it now, you have no chance until you're rich, and even then it'll be for the money, just don't date. Superglue the toilet seat up, shit in the back yard, race cars, get shit done, you'll be set for life with the money from Facebook. Good luck.)

Dear my younger self,

Enjoy the life that you are having right now. Because one day when you look back, everything has changed. At this age, there's just so much you can't do. But the world is filled with hope and dreams and everything is simple. Take pictures in your mind of your childhood room because you will not see it again once you get to college. Enjoy those family meals that you are having with your parents.

Eat more, and learn how to take care of yourself.

Life is not simple and "pink" like you imagined. But I know you can overcome every obstacles.

Enjoy the life that you are having right now. Because one day when you look back, everything has changed. At this age, there's just so much you can't do. But the world is filled with hope and dreams and everything is simple. Take pictures in your mind of your childhood room because you will not see it again once you get to college. Enjoy those family meals that you are having with your parents. Eat more, and learn how to take care of yourself.

Life is not simple and "pink" like you imagined. But I know you can overcome every obstacles.
Definitely a good message

Dear 12 year old me,

Start saving money now so you can afford front stage tickets to the Yeezus Tour.
