Thread: Steam Game Contest - My First Contest

CanisMajoris - September 15, 2015, 7:25 am

Well ladies and gentlemen it is time for me to give back to a community that gave so much to me. This contest is for 3 random steam games, 1 for each of the 3 chosen winners using random.org.

Rules:

1. You can only post once, your number will be your post number
2. You must be an upgraded member, or if not have at least 250 posts, and provide a thread in which you have benefited the community.
3. idk post something that'll make me laugh along with your "id like to enter post"

Winner will be chosen around 100 replies or so. These keys are completely random, so you won't know what the game is until you activate it, it could be GTA5 or it could be a 99 cent game lol. Good luck all!

Truth - September 15, 2015, 7:27 am id like to enter post please

CanisMajoris - September 15, 2015, 8:40 am

then thats far from "GTA V"

thats either extremely poor luck or coordinated foul play

Like I said these are just completely random keys, I don't know what they are either. When I bought them the description said they could be anything on steam. Obviously no one ever told you not to look a gift horse in the mouth.

For everyone else I'd we can get a few more entries I'll do another drawing tonight. Still have 2 left

Random stolen joke v
Spoiler (Click to View)
A man in a hot air balloon realized he was lost. He reduced altitude and spotted a man below. He descended a bit more and shouted, "Excuse me, can you help me? I promised a friend I would meet him half an hour ago, but I don't know where I am."
The man below replied, "You are in a hot air balloon hovering approximately 30 feet above the ground. You are between 40 and 42 degrees north latitude and between 58 and 60 degrees west longitude."
"You must be an engineer," said the balloonist.
"I am," replied the man, "but how did you know?"
"Well," answered the balloonist, "everything you told me is technically correct, but I have no idea what to make of your information, and the fact is I am still lost."
The man below responded, "You must be a manager."

"I am," replied the balloonist, "how did you know?"

"Well," said the man, "you don't know where you are or where you are going. You made a promise which you have no idea how to keep, and you expect me to solve your problem. The fact is you are exactly in the same position you were in before we met, but now, somehow, it's my fault."
