Thread: Milked this guy's life 1860 USD in a few hours.

Fawby - September 15, 2015, 2:54 pm

Yo guys, I wasn't making any threads of my earnings from past 1 or 2 months. Now i am making one because i just did a huge ewhore today.

On 13th i met this idiot and Quad-dipped him to get $240 ( TALKED FOR 1 HOURS )
Today is 16th and i pentadipped him again to get $1620 . ( TALKED FOR 2 HOURS ) here is the screenie. If you don't believe then let me know. Will do a screenshare. Total 1860 in 3 days.

NOTE :- My SE SKILLS are damn great that he still trusts me coz i didn't scammed him

NOTE :- ALL PAYMENTS ARE IN GBP ( So if you want to waste your time and convert in USD , You can do that too )

<http://prntscr.com/8grxnp>

Made a goal of 2500 USD for september.

Was on 500 3 hours back. Now 2327.

So guys what it means? It takes less than a night to change your life upside down. Keep working, Keep Hustling, You're the best.

TomHimself - September 15, 2015, 2:59 pm

Wow, congratulations. This is surely very motivating. ?

Realing - September 15, 2015, 3:02 pm

I fucking hate how people lie in the e-whoring section. Swear to god mane.

"pentadipped" literally laughed so hard. Fake as fuck

Fish - September 15, 2015, 3:02 pm

Lol u said quad and penta dipped. The screen shot shows different amounts of money. Each time you do it you did it you raised the price?

Fawby - September 15, 2015, 3:03 pm

Yes different amounts. If you think it's fake. Come on skype. I will show you via screenshare. :)

Fish - September 15, 2015, 3:09 pm

Op just screens shared and refreshed the page, he is legit

Fawby - September 15, 2015, 3:10 pm

Thanks a ton Fish. Baby Cheeto good luck man!

Zeeka - September 15, 2015, 3:13 pm

I've just milked someone for a one hundred thousand. Not posting a thread doe.

EvoSat - September 15, 2015, 3:14 pm damn how do people do this? Lol, i dont make shit from ewhoring

Faisje - September 15, 2015, 3:19 pm

Daaammnnnn... What method do you use?

darkeclipse - September 15, 2015, 3:20 pm

nice earnings op

good job

HackerPuppy - September 15, 2015, 3:49 pm

FAKE as shit. And @OP is liar.

IMO he tolls on ewhoring section looking for "victims".

1000 time in 1 day money from same customer paypal, and your account OK. come on mr.Troll. With such volume paypal will put your funds on hold until they confirm "whats going on with your account".

Talked to @OP in the past, he even doesn't have his method to earn $100.

Dean Winchester? - September 15, 2015, 3:51 pm

I still think doing this is absolutely sick and I have no idea how you can feel good about earning money from doing this.

It's sick.

Kelsaa - September 15, 2015, 4:47 pm

How come you penta dipped him and yet the amounts are different?

And also you can't receive 500$ in one transaction without paypal limiting you!

Maze - September 15, 2015, 4:49 pm

There's a special place reserved in hell for people who did this kind of shit.

Disgusting abuse of desperate people in terrible situations.

You're a fucking idiot, yes you can. I've sent out more than 500$ to one person and PayPal didn't even touch me, wasn't even from my home IP.

Don't make shit up

Remix™ - September 15, 2015, 7:27 pm

I am talking about ewhore paypal accounts, and receiving ( not sending) 500$ from one transaction into an ewhore account will make it suspicious and most probably get you limited, just look at how many people here get their paypals limited and crying after loosing all their earnings ;) This is why people try to avoid paypal and use AGC more.

Try using your brain if any and reading before calling people idiots next time ;)

It wasn't ewhore paypal account. It was my real verified paypal bro.

I lost $1600 before in making fake pp . Now i use real. I don't repeat mistakes.

That's what I was saying. If it was your real paypal then you're good, but you still take risks.

But using fake ones and receiving very large amounts is the best way to loose everything. Anyways nice earnings.

Nothing to be jealous of when you can't prove your payments.
It's easy to grab a script that just edits the same page as soon as you refresh it. You stopped screen-sharing as soon as I asked for you to click on the payment. That doesn't yield any personal information besides an email and name which won't get me anywhere. I don't need your shit method either.

Any-who, quit asking me to rep people over Skype; reported.
Just goes to show how insecure you get once you take harassments from another person.

Why I know it is fake is because PayPal serves the right to hold your money if you receive more than $500 in a week, and you're not limited yet, which I know it's fake.

OP and I were in a call, I asked for further proof and he became insecure and stopped screen sharing and started typing before he started again. Made me assume he was trying to inspect element even more. It was obvious, if someone has legit proof they would show it when asked, in this case he showed some to people and some to me, but nothing notable or even something that looks authentic.

If i don't make a single buck why are you talking so big when you live in a mud hut next to a rice store? No need to talk shit you can't back up and dig yourself deeper in a hole of lies.

Next off, the fees aren't that big. I've received payments bigger than that.

PayPal takes 2.9%

2.9% of 1937 is 56.73

1937-56.73=1880.07

Hell, let me go further why not?

In those payments you received maybe 10 at most payments? If they were goods and services it'd be about another $3 based on their other fees.

Seeing as you took these as Friends and Family payments I doubt you had fees. ;) (the emails say so)

Payments sent as F&F show up as "sent you" and goods and services "just sent you"

Now I'll proceed further.

Even with PayPals currency exchange you would have about 1800~1840. Not 1860, your math is wrong and you were called out by both me and Kondax.

You became extremely insecure and hung the call up once I said you could easily just edit the page and have it the same once you refresh, pretty sure it's possible.

Your actions and both the way you talk differ from your earnings.

You Sir resort to Insult and making baseless accusation when confronted. Someone very aptly said....do not try to wrestle a Pig coz its the pig who enjoys it the most and you get dirty. So I leave you with this mess to carry on.

PS: I do make more money than you do. And In my free time I like to watch such shows on HF while holding a tub full of popcorn.

5% of 1937 is:96.85

1937-96.35 = 1840

Though,

It's actually 4.4%

Comes out to roughly 1851

Then you have PayPal USD rates which converts to maybe - another $30 because of their conversion rates.

I would rather nail my dick to the wall of a burning building instead of fucking giving damn to your theories. Now fucking listen to me very carefully.

here is the best proof i can give to you. I am on my way to become established seller.

<http://prntscr.com/8hgmbp>

See this. Now you have problem if any then fuck off from my thread

Or meet me on 7th october once the all money is cleared and transferred to my bank and once i have dipped that guy properly I will invite you . No problem.

I don't want to fly to India and fight you in your shithole you call a city.

Fly to th- oh wait you can't afford it.

Mate, Charmer is richer than me, He won't lick my balls. Instead you're licking my ass which is full of poop. I am thinking to fart hahahahah???????

Guys sorry i just commented in this thread previously but the bullshit here, are too damn much, that i have to comment again.

First of all in the first pic the cross are not even testy one below the other in the correct form. Indian

Fees are 4,4 % + 0.30 Usd

4,4% of 1937 is 85,228 ~ 85,23 (rounded)

1937-85,23-0.30= 1851,47

Math is not an opinion, cheers.

Math is not an opinion, cheers.It's $0.30 USD per transaction. In total it'd come out to -$3.00 total from those transactions just off of fees excluding the 4.4% rate from PayPal for Indian PayPal Accounts.

You also need to add in conversion rates via PayPal:

<https://gyazo.com/88b029c2e3a75c596192a0ae7d38dd5a>

After Conversion Rate of 1253 GBP to USD in PayPal's Currency Exchange = 1,893.43 USD

So magically $33.43 is missing from your PayPal balance Lucky Horse? Yeahhhh-no.

Quote:4,4% of 1937 is 85,228 ~ 85,23 (rounded)

1937-85,23-0.30= 1851,47

Something I don't think anyone realizes here though is that the 4.4% is taken as soon as the transaction occurs. So none of the above

But that's none of my business. sips tea

Now for you Charmer,

If you want to play rates, then I'll play with you. PayPal doesn't use the same rates as google for you buddy. ?

PayPal exchange rate:

1 GBP = 1.51111 USD

Now to reverse that math for you it equals to 1894.73 in a calculator but 1894.43 in PayPal's eyes. That's a $0.30 fee for using their conversion service as-well.

If you want to play rates though:

http://ycharts.com/indicators/british\_pound\_exchange\_rate

Even 5 days ago it wouldn't have made a damn difference.

Molec - September 17, 2015, 3:25 pm

Griveous you're damn correct 0.30 was per transactions (my bad) plus all the things you mentioned.

But the strange is even if u leave the 0.30$ usd per transactions u still don't reach the op amount ahahah

Yes the matter is i received in pounds so they also have cut the currency conversion around 5% i think. So i received around 1250 GBP , But i converted it to usd so charge of that is cut too .

Wait for this money to be transferred to my bank buddy. :D You're trying to get email of my guy which i will never let it happen :D

So you'll show me your personal details related to your bank account but not your PayPal account when you were screensharing me. K.

I'm done here, it was obvious you were lying and failed to provide a valid argument against my above statement.

Lol showing a transaction transferred in my bank, What the fuck you can do to it?

But if i show you the payment details. You can email the guy that im fake and if he disputed then what?

I know you're up for this only. You know that i proved you wrong, That's why you fucking around. Because if you accept your fault then you will be insulted as fuck here ;)

GUYS please be aware, that the @OP most probably will try to sell his "method" after some weeks/months.

This is why he is bragging so much now, despite the fact that bragging is not allowed in ewhoring section, not to mention paypal fraud, not to mention fake screenshots.

Conclusion:

If MODS have heads on their shoulders they'll ban @OP asap to prevent fellow HF members being scammed by him in the very near future.

Will never ever sell my method. I can make $100 a day from it. I made $155 today :)

@Voltric 80 E-Tune: you are such liar, that you should be banned asap.

If you don't sell your method, why you have in your profile signature:

"Ewhoring Method - Make $50-$100 per day - Unsaturated

Skype- ashish.pal84"

Maybe its your visit card?
