Thread: Graphics forum staff needed

FalconDesigns - September 15, 2015, 8:21 pm

I am looking for a staff member for my new design forum. You must have experience with forum administration and also with graphic design. I will also need help advertising if you are given the spot.

PM me for more information. This is volunteer at first, but with the chance of pay later on.

If you pay now I will take the job.

Sorry, I am not going to do that.

Browse the graphics marketplace and PM a trustworthy/reliable user.

Well if you are looking for someone that can do this good you can PM me but I need something in return for doing work for you.

I'm not looking to trade services. I'm looking for someone who genuinely wants to help build a community.
