Hey HF so I have been scammed by him. I purchased an eBook from him on September 4th for $17. In his thread he mentioned that he does provide support as his stated quote "Yes I offer you 100% Personal 1-1 Support with No Extra Costs (Unlike The Other Guys...)". So in his eBook there is 1 method I needed help setting up properly since I kept getting problems. I pm'd him 4 times regarding sales as I wanted to buy the book. After I bought the book that's where it all went downhill as I messaged him 9 times in a course of 6 days. Out of those 9 messages he responded about 2 times. 1 saying to add him on skype (which I did) and 2 that he has been very busy and he is willing to help me now (which never happened again). I have added him on skype and messaged him about 5 times asking for help in about 2-3 days and he never responded even though it showed he was online. I have all pm's and skype messages.

My first PM to him 3 days later after buying method 9/7/15 <https://imgur.com/dY4XeS6> - He pm me back the same day telling me to add him on skype. I added him but I guess it was the wrong person. So next day 9/8/15 he tells me to add him again since he didn't get anything. I added him again and he never accepted.

I messaged him on 9/8/15 (2 times) and didn't get a response until 9/12/15

2nd message- <https://imgur.com/AF4Ki5M>

After not getting a message until the 12th I messaged him on the 9th asking for a refund.

Notice how many times he dis regards my pms for a refund even though in his thread he talks about how the package comes with a warranty

Update: got a refund (after I escalated the case on paypal)

It's terrible you were scammed. I just saw another report on the scammer here. I really hope you're able to get your money back.
