2 of my teachers got in trouble for filming underage girls/boys.

First one put an iPad on the ground and tried to record up the skirts of young girls for the "challenge." He was caught and had to register as a sex offender and got put into jail.

Second one put a cell phone under the sink to record the boys/girls/teachers (Administrator bathroom for faculty and special needs students) he got caught and had to register as a sex offender and also went to jail.

I'm just pissed because they had to fucking call it in right before I went to lunch.

Then I find out that the people who didn't ride a bus got fucking pizza while they waited for their parents.

I was about to blow the fucking school up myself.

Someone in my old school re-decorated the changing rooms with toilet paper & aerosol's then set it all on fire, The police and fire department were all over the field, Everybody got their bags searched for lighters (i had one in my bag but it was never found)

The person who did it was never caught though, not sure how but they weren't

I would be so mad and I'm laughing so hard rn. I live in a rich area so it's weird so some idiots to call in a bomb threat. I remember someone called and said they were going to shoot up

The school and school was cancelled lol

Sometimes I wish Canadian schools had that kind of action just to spice up the day a little bit. I remember one time it really got out of hand... Someone walked into someone else and they said sorry...

That was hella crazy
