I do believe there is a max limit on how much you can trade

Scymo - September 20, 2015, 9:06 am use a verified paypal and this wont be an issue or use btc

Grimeta - September 20, 2015, 9:06 am

Nobody? Why is your PP limited in the first place?

I'm only 17 years old and don't have a bank so that's an issue.
But not here to discuss that.

If this is about selling crackers using paypal, old news, paypal will permanently limit you with no chance of appeal. No way around it.

I encounter it every now and then. I've been using Fake Paypals since 2011 though.
