Giving back to the community!

Hey all I have decided to give back to the community and am offering free mentoring making money using social media (this isn't just some referral BS I will genuinely be helping you)

How ever there are few a requirements:

You must give 110% if I am mentoring you

Must have a social media account (FB or IG)

Must remember making money takes time this isnt magic

Dont half ass anything

If you are interested PM me however as listed above I will be investing 100% into each of you and I expect 110% back.

If you want proof of my earnings I will send through PM as I don't wish to flaunt it around on an internet forum.
