Nice tool. Thanks for sharing this.

TheCyb3rAlpha - September 22, 2015, 7:19 pm

thanks for the share.

btw its pentesteracademy.

Its an Initiative by Vivek Ramachandran (SecurityTube.net) and they did made a web-based csv visualizer. Its a great tool but you should see his other tools. especially the 'chelam' wifi firewall. damn good.

This is awesome, thanks for sharing it.

I love Vevik, he's a great WiFi Hacking Teacher.

Mad76e - September 23, 2015, 2:37 am

Thanks guys!

Great thread Mad, our very own MAD WIFI HACKER lol.

Wireless Network - September 23, 2015, 11:28 pm

Awesome share. I was actually week ago thinking about that problem and wondering how the heck to se clients. Thanks!

EDIT:

I have problem uploading my .csv file on my kali linux. Does anyone have any solution for it?

It simply doesn't see my airodump files

Yep, i'm using iceweasel with latest flash player.

I'll give it a try on my windows, but i'm sure it will work.

Last time i tried .. there was no such option.

It would be great if it worked in realtime.. it will reduce a stress for saving the cap. files and adding them an so on.. :P

Yes there is a way, I still have to get my posts up to post links but if you checkout the video called '005 Live mode' by youtube user 'Vivek Ramachandran' you can see how to do it.

Yeah its kind of a pain in the ass to do - no simple piping but oh well.

The funny thing is I just found this tool today myself and was going to post a thread about it haha

Fake edit: geez, cant even quote people with videos...
