Send a Message to any number FROM ANY number!!

Hello, i am quite new to this community and this is my first Service Offering to people, and obviously you're not gonna trust some new noob user to do anything, but we all have to start from somewhere, and i am able to provide you with proof by sending you a message from a desired number.

So, I am able to send a text message, from any number you like, (if they have that number saved as a contact, then that contact name will appear on their phone). I am also able to make it send from a word, such as 'Michael' or 'Unknown' and thats what will come up on their phone.

This will be free for now, and if i get alot of offers I may put a small price on it!

As i said i am able to provide you with proof if you dont believe me, ask me to send you a text from a random number and you will see that it works!

So just PM me or add me on skype- zolenex and we can discuss from there :)

EDIT-

We have tried in the USA, but it seems to only come from the number "43704". Will be working on a fix for that

Thank You :)

Friend of mine had something like this

From what I recall, it doesn't work on newer iPhones/Samsungs as they display it instead as the actual sender/email or whatnot.

Is yours different?

I doubt this works in the US/Canada. Most have had several problems, however I found a bypass a while back. Sending names didn't work though.

Do you live in the US/Canada? If so PM me, and we can try it out.

So far, it does not work in the US/Canada, and still looking for any testers from around the world to see which countries it does work in.

dhuy903 - October 8, 2015, 7:13 am

I will try this now only.....

vinay9 - October 8, 2015, 8:23 am

Will this work in canada .?

1supercooldude - October 8, 2015, 5:14 pm

I actually did this aswell about a couple months ago, but gave up when it wouldn't work unless they didn't have the number saved... can you add me on kik 1supercooldude bc I cannot use skype

Killuaa - November 22, 2015, 12:45 pm

Added you on skype sir...will be giving a feedback later on

The guy is a scammer. Don't listen to him.. his services aren't top notch.. You cannot route sms messages thru phones unless you rat them. This guy isn't selling a rat nor has them ratted. He is selling a fake service that uses free phone numbers online.

kupang - August 23, 2016, 4:26 am seriously sir?

i want anymore number

you can pm me sir?

i cant PM

new from thi forum

I don't know if he is a scammer but I have a service where I can spoof any number or name. Sms gets to inbox same way as if it was sent by the person, no way to detect. So I can assure that the system works. Just don't know if THIS system works.
