I did but I also checked his rep and seen that he has sold btc and such

0x - September 23, 2015, 5:16 pm

Yeah I am so scamming you.

You think it's the first time I see kids like you pulling this string? Redeeming the code and and trying to redeem it again and making us look like the bad guy? Tomorrow I'll be contacting the site where I bought the giftcard to know what's going on and if I find out what I think is true, well good luck with that. But if they tell me the opposite, then you will earn your refund. Until then, everything is on hold until I have answers.

Typical words from someone who tried to scam me.

CRAP it's 0x68!

I've been away from HF for 12 months and he's a known scammer already with like many scam reports!

And he's been scamming again.

Kind of your fault OP for not checking it, but 0x68 is a scammer anyways and there is plenty of proof LOL
