Can't wait to see the applicants we get.

I work during the week so clay will be managing recruitment, etc. So if you have any questions ask him. Or you can ask me and I will try to get back to you on the weekend.

Grin - September 26, 2015, 4:13 pm

this group name sounds like a STD.

Lmao I read the title as Hepatitis or however you spell it

Lithe - September 26, 2015, 5:10 pm

Who are all the current members?

STD or not, Clay's a great guy so it's a great group. :)

Currently myself and Clay.

Had a few people apply from Pirates, but nobody that really seemed skilled enough.

Elliot Alderson. - September 27, 2015, 3:32 am

Looking forward to working in this group with Thiizic and future members.

Get your applications In asap!

neightworks - September 27, 2015, 4:35 am

The logos a pirate ship? Not quite sure I understand the name selection, are you saying you're looking for slaves?

b?xxy - September 27, 2015, 4:36 am

Same color scheme as pirates it seems.

First thing I thought about when seeing this.

No, we're looking for people to work on project with, me and Thiizic have knowledge in area's also, enough to be able to make big contributions to all projects. We just want a functioning, efficient team.

Cough - September 27, 2015, 4:39 am so is this going to be an official HF group or just some dev team or something

This is a sub-group for the pirates.

For questions regarding the name and image, contact Thiizic, if its bothering you that much, although I deem it irrelevant.

Ramsey - September 27, 2015, 7:01 am

I want to apply for the programming position.

How should I go about this?

PM me with the application form.

Private Network - September 27, 2015, 8:43 am

I will be leading this group together with Clay.

Currently we have had some quality applications!
