DMX was released from jail today (September 25), TMZ reports.

The rapper's lawyer filed a document asking the judge to throw out the initial case made against the rapper because the police did not follow proper procedures when he was arrested.

He was taken into custody in July for issues stemming from child support and given a six-month sentence.

The site says DMX has agreed to pay the mother in question $20,000.

Probably 3 weeks from now m8 ??

I swear his most recent arrest was because him and his "gang" beat up some guy at the gas station and stole there money, unless I'm thinking of someone else
