Can you please edit your post as you know this was not me.

I know it was not you that's mean it was your Imposted. I did not tell others to avoid you but the mentioned skype in the Thread title to avoid.

This Thread is actually created to avoid the imposter.

For better understanding "I have Edited the Thread title" Hope you will like.

I think you are cleared dude. ?

This is a good point i for one like my privacy and would never post my Skype anywhere. Nor do i accept contact requests as no one should have my Skype besides my exchangers.
