Limitations can happen for many different reasons. Which PayPal has been limited, your main or your ewhore? Also, please use the format for asking questions next time.

PayPal limitation expert here, what was the reason behind your limitation; do they know you were selling pictures?

As bald as stated, use the provided former for further questions.

Problem/Question: Limited Paypal

Opinion of the situation: It's happened in the past, if I was to get back into ewhoring i'd just like to know a way to avoid it and in the worst case, remove it.

Have you tried to solve it? If so, how?: Attempted to call paypal and said I was the brother of the account owner. didn't work.

Date of occurrence: 2 years ago

Additional information: all stated above

You were limited for false information I'm assuming; that being said your way of solving it will never work.

A solution: do not use a girls name. Use yours.

How to make yourself look legit without using a girls name: A business account with the name of "Virtual Goods" etc

Hello, if you couldn't understand that clearly, here it is simplified.

Make a Business PayPal under your name and have the business name "Virtual Goods." That way you will have your information but the buyer will not see your name, only the name of business.

Banker - September 30, 2015, 2:13 pm

Would the victim be a bit more curious if they're paying to a paypal called 'Virtual Goods'?

Not at all, if they're then just say that it is indeed you and you're receiving the funds.

They're paying for virtual goods after-all, aren't they?

Balding - September 30, 2015, 2:14 pm

(Sep 30, 2015 02:13 PM)Banker Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Would the victim be a bit more curious if they're paying to a paypal called 'Virtual Goods'?

I doubt it. Virtual goods is a very vague thing. When buying pictures most people don't really pay much attention to names. They simply check to see if it's a female name then go on with the payment.

Phreakdaline - September 30, 2015, 2:30 pm

To echo the others, "Virtual Goods" is a bit of a catch all with PayPal. There are some situations where other circumstances can cause them to be more suspicious of course, so it's not a "get out of jail free" card, but it will save your ass most of the time.

Problem/Question: Traffic

Opinion of the situation: Disaster

Have you tried to solve it? If so, how?: Yes, posting on all Kik websites that are on HF

Date of occurrence: From one week ago

Additional information: I got nice amount of traffic for a long time and used to earn from $20-$100 per day, I usually posted on one website and gets lots of adds, now when I post on all websites, even on those where I have to register, I get maximum 30 adds, and all of them are not interested / time wasters. Problem/Question: My only problem at the point as my ability to appear realistic to the people who message me, the amount of people unwilling to pay is massive which leads me to just copy/pasting phrases hoping someone will take the bait although it makes me look like a bot especially when they request live pics with some retarded signs and finger, finger in mouth etc. My real question should probably be if there is some sort of guide on the specific social engineering part of this "job".

Opinion of the situation: I do look like a bot even i see that but impatience and annoyance on my side doesn't give me enough will to talk to everyone

Have you tried to solve it? If so, how?: i have tried talking to some people, after which they start making ridiculous requests to which my level of social engineering skills/photoshop/video editing etc. is too low to accomplish. I also think that i just need to build my own pack with pics,vids,wcv etc. but i am lost here as well.

Date of occurrence: i started e-whoring recently again (aprox 2 weeks ago)

Additional information: For the past 11 days i've only made the amount of 135$ on us amazon and 35£(~53$) on the uk one (possibly a 50$ from one more guy tonight). Sorry if everything i wrote seems unclear a little.

Hello, 8fas786. It seems your biggest problems are that you seem too much like a bot and that your social engineering skills are lacking. This is all completely okay. In order to try and fix this follow these steps.

1. Talk to your customers. When you talk to them make sure you are talking like a girl. That's the most important part. Use tons of smileys etc. In order to filter out timewasters ask if they can pay with a fake payment processor i.e paybuddy. If they say yes then block them and be on your way.
2. Get a better pack. There's tons of good free ones here on HF. Or, if you want to spend a little of the money you've made, buy a premium pack. I highly recommend buying a premium pack.
3. If you can't fake proof then just make a post on HF. Give your customer an excuse and then post a thread. Once you get the proof faked tell them you're back and you'll send the proof in a minute.

If you're unclear about anything then simply let me know. Best of luck to you!!

Well in your case I would have used a site like payivy and then sold some kind of product there (of course not camshow? also you have to remember its fake so the product name has to be something like donation) as at the end of the day paypal has no proof its a gift as your selling a "product" on payivy though this is my opinion i recommend listening to One of the guys in Affectus HelpDesk.

Also remember have a name like donation and in your ewhore its best to state that the money there giving you is a real donation to you for two reasons. So your not selling a fake product (physical or virtual) and your not breaking the payivy rule but again I recommend hearing from affectus helpdesk

Apologies for not responding to this. I think it was asked during a time that none of us were around lol. I would agree with what AnonymousBuffalo said, a payment processor that doesn't require valid credentials or product information would be best. Ideally, you never want someone sending money directly to you through PayPal, simply because you run the risk of them writing whatever they want in the description, and that can draw negative attention and result in account closures, as you have experienced. Use Paylvy, or another site like it, and create a "virtual product" to sell on there. Pick something simple, like a kind of service perhaps, but don't use the word pictures anywhere. Having that middle man as a payment processor between your customer and PayPal, usually avoids any suspicion from PayPal.

To ADD to that however, I try to avoid PayPal altogether, as transactions are always under more and more scrutiny. If payment in Amazon gift cards is acceptable to you, I would highly recommend using that.

AnonymousBuffalo - November 14, 2015, 1:14 pm

100% Agreed

Paypal is just a pain in the ass there are ways to avoid even getting attention though Im not gonna post as thats breaking the paypal rule which is breaking the hackforums rule :(

Now I recommend using amazon cards like Phreakdaline had stated so at the end of day you can buy products from amazon or turn it into hard cash by buying others stuff for a lower price then original price(pretty much reselling)

You will run into many scenarios where a guy wants to verify that you're real with questions like that. You need to look around to find a pack that includes a good few different verification pictures either holding up paper that you can photoshop writing onto, or holding up fingers/doing random things etc. You'll always run into guys who ask for things you can't provide. Either try to convince them with conversation/other pics, or just move on. Not worth the time it will take to convince someone that's really skeptical.

Agree with Bald here. There are countless amazing packs out there for free that are just as good as most paid ones.

If you are determined to buy one, Fliix has a good collection here =

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4848961>

I also sell a pack but I would NOT recommend it for intro level ewhores =

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4953281>

Mine is mostly geared toward long term milkers that know what they're doing. I'd recommend downloading as many of the free packs you can find browsing through old pages here, and pick one that's versatile with a few good verification pictures.

I'll also keep an eye on this and answer any questions. Considering giving that old pack I was selling for free, considering it's been leaked pretty massively lol.

At that point you might as-well just give it away due to it being leaked otherwise you'll be shunned for selling public stuff. ?

Yeah I think I will. Made the $$ back I spent on thread and stuff anyways lol, so idc about anything beyond that. Did real work on it too, shopping all the verification pics so they're ready to be written on etc.

No clue, I haven't messed around with jailbroken apps. ?

Glad you found your solution though!

Problem/Question: PayPal got limited

Opinion of the situation: I started ewhoring to paypal when i was 16 years old and now one month left till by birthday paypal got limited cause i'm under age for 180 days. Just 30 days left until birthday and limited for 180 days

Have you tried to solve it? If so, how?: I didn't. Don't know how.

Date of occurance: 2018-07-06

Additional information: I made a mistake sending them a identify card where they saw that i'm under age.
