??Affectus??

<---?-----?-----?-----?--->

Mentoring Provided by: Grievous & Optimized

Affectus would like to provide the eWhoring community a working mentoring service. This mentoring service will provide you unique methods and a 2:1 session with Grievous and I

<---?--->Mentoring Features<---?--->

50% Auto-Pilot; you must put in work for any of the methods provided to work.

Nothing related to any eBooks sold by me or Grievous, these are private methods.

This is a 2-on-1 session where you'll have both me and grievous teaching you how to pull in $500+ a day off eWhoring and how to get quality traffic.

Guaranteed Profit - in the case you are not able to profit you'll receive a full refund + $100.

No investment will be needed after you purchase. Everything after that point is free and will be provided for you.

You'll receive 2 private packs upon joining the mentoring session which can be used however you want.

<---?--->Requirements<---?--->Basic knowledge of eWhoring; this is recommended but not needed. In the case you're new we will teach you the basics.

A eWhoring PayPal already set up.

A basic pack you already use, although you'll be provided a new private pack we suggest you keeping hold of your old pack in the case complications may occur.

Ability to comprehend basic English, if you can't this causes issues on our end which will result in complications on yours and we would appreciate not having any complications. Though in a case where you do not speak English we can try our best to speak in other languages.

<---?--->Prices<---?--->First service will be $100 off that we can get a review of the service provided.

Full Mentoring Service - $750

Full Mentoring Service + Private Traffic Method - $1000

Nope, we are in no rush to sell this service either as its mainly dedicated to those looking for something other than your normal eBook methods and/or planning to take things to a bigger level with eWhoring.

(Oct 3, 2015 01:26 AM)marcus_aurelius Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Is there an money back guarantee if i dont earn $500 a day within my first week?

You're purchasing a method and a mentoring service where we teach you hands on what to do and make sure you earn during the time period we are in the mentoring.

We can't guarantee your earnings because you could simple learn the method and not do it for that whole week then ask for a refund but afterwards do the method.

That being said, if you can't make anything with proof of even trying (we check in daily on our customers to see progress) then we'll refund you.

Indeed said. If you put in the effort that is required of you (which will make you money) but somehow fail to make any money we will be refunding your full amount.

However if you put in little to no effort no refund will be provided for the exact reason Grievous has stated:

Quote:you could simple learn the method and not do it for that whole week then ask for a refund but afterwards do the method.

Thanks for the interest.

Depends on which escrow service we use. The fact I don't have experience with an escrow service concerns me when it comes to funds and could easily be manipulated through it.
