The user mentioned in the OP has a scam report open as well:

Make sure you update your negative on him with the link to your report so it doesn't get reported as reputation abuse.

IPLogger - October 1, 2015, 7:34 am

IPLogger's account has now been hacked by this user. We need this fixed ASAP.

Can say that it is true IPLogger was ratted by Sakura.

I have proof in Skype and records on my site that state he has used both the account of his and IPLogger's account (on my site).

I cleaned the RAT from IPLogger's computer, was Luminosity Link.

Thank God, now I recovered my account back

Thanks for support guys.
