In that case I'd like a mentor session from you ?

So you made around $30 a day eWhoring?

Assuming a month is 30 days.

$1000 a month isn't very good; it's decent just not good enough to mentor imo.

Thank you for saying exactly what I was going to say.

If you're being mentored by someone to make $500 a day then it's worth the mentoring price. That's all I have to say.

That's why you do a background check to see if they actually do earn what they say.

Most people who offer mentoring services don't make anywhere close to what they say they make; but those who actually do get looked down upon even though they offer authentic proof. ?

bragging is banned here,or i would have shown you payment proofs.

I'm new and interested in this. I understand the basics though.
