Thread: Food section..

Lawsuit - October 4, 2015, 1:08 am

We should have a section for food....

Members can share recipes, guides, pictures whatever.....

DeadOne1 - October 4, 2015, 1:11 am

I suggested this and people replied that it won't get any further than 100 threads on that section.

Granny Bacon - October 4, 2015, 1:12 am

I bet it will get over 100 threads, but the question is, will they just be troll threads or serious?

I ate a pizza yesterday

Anyway this sounds like a good idea, but you need to get enough people behind it

Omniscient Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Not yet.

You have to find ~100 threads in the past month to warrant a new section.

xKtFStore - October 4, 2015, 2:54 pm

Lol this is not a bad idea, but it would be interesting to see what people would post in that section.

kneegurs - October 4, 2015, 2:56 pm

whole section will be dedicated to poisoning other members.

Night Fury - October 4, 2015, 2:56 pm

I have a feeling that 99% of members on HF eat pizza, ramen, and Chinese takeout on the daily. I don't think there's much culinary talent here.

I'd like to interject. I enjoy cooking my own meals daily, especially since fitness is one of my hobbies. I follow a clean diet and modify a lot of recipes to fit with the criteria of my diet. A food section would be very nice, but there isn't enough activity to warrant this section. This should be suggested again when activity about food goes up and you're able to find at least 100 threads created within a 30 day time period.

HueXXX - October 4, 2015, 3:04 pm

I've hardly seen any threads about food!

I think my self alone I have done 100+ threads on food in a month -_-

I'd be the god of that section.

This could work however I don't feel theres merely enough posts based on food on HF. There's the odd tutorial on cooking something or making a pizza ordering food etc. but the activity here would be very, very low.

Leeway - October 4, 2015, 3:05 pm

This would be a good idea.

I can show people my cheese

what if I promised 2 HQ threads a day in that section (i'm being serious)

Royal Crowd - October 4, 2015, 3:08 pm

This would actually be pretty cool!

I hope someday this could be added.

Have a nice day! ?

Start now and post a suggestion when you've posted 100 threads. The section might be created. Although it probably won't if the 100 threads would all be from the same person, since you'd be the only one posting.

Would you be willing to post a thread about what you eat in the Health Wise section? That could spur interest in the idea of culinary talent. Maybe if the thread become popular enough, and imitators started popping up, that would help justify the idea of a food section.

Maybe there would be 4-5 threads a day in it? Doesn't seem very good. The thread just wouldn't build activity. That being said; 2 HQ threads for food can be done in the Lounge easily and it wouldn't be that difficult. Further more you would get more attention.

Lawsuit - October 4, 2015, 5:46 pm

Okay: let's make it a goal to create food threads

Veezon - October 4, 2015, 6:31 pm

Yes. Then I could upload videos of me eating and reviewing every meal I eat.

Crocs - October 5, 2015, 4:57 am

I support this so hard. I love food and food loves me. A food section would be wonderful.

#Skyline - October 6, 2015, 5:27 pm

People eat food everyday, I recommend this section.

Roger Waters - October 7, 2015, 2:04 pm

This has been suggested many, many, many times in the past and has been denied every time. We don't have enough activity in terms of quality and relevancy to warrant a section.
