Warm Welcomes to Everybody.

This is the Official Legends Upgrade thread. I personally see a lot of HQ normal members who have been here for quite some time and are serving a good purpose to the community. There are countless examples. Therefore I decided to make this thread to locate them all and upgrade them. By having an upgrade they can do better with all those new perks that come along with the upgrade. If you think you are one such member, post below in the appropriate format and I will upgrade you. This will be a weekly contest. All normal members meeting the certain minimum requirements can post below and I will look into each of your profiles and see whether you deserve a free upgrade or not. If you don't make out in one particular week, improve yourself, make yourself more productive and apply in the next week after the contemporaneity week's result is posted.

I will not keep this confined to one member only. If I find multiple members who deserve upgrade, I will upgrade all of them. What I assure is one upgrade per week. Also I keep it open for members who want 3PIC and Ub3r too. Just post below.

Who Can Apply?

Normal >> L33T
Normal >> 3PIC
L33T >> 3PIC
Approved L33T >> Ub3r
3PIC >> L33T
Ub3r >> 3PIC

RulesDon't PM me asking the status of your application

Don't be mad when you are not selected

Don;t apply more than once in one particular week. You can re apply the other week.

I and only I will have the final say on who is to be upgraded. Please don't send me suggestions.

Be kind and respectful to the oppurtunity you are reciving

Describe your HF journey in short

I've started of course like most other members to hack some accounts for a game or some Facebook thing, I can't really remember since I've posted too much. At this time I would've downloaded anything looking semi-legit on YouTube that would hack stats in games like RuneScape (Destroyed several computers with it haha). I learned about keyloggers and stealers the hard way, getting it dumped on the internet and gotten more into the really basics of hacking (SQLi etc.) The community was very nice as a newbie to me and I made a thread where I would do anything for everyone and it blew up. I started posting more and learned about web forensics & cracking (Cleaning up the mess that was when you Google my name seeing passwords and emails) + mentoring people and now I am here.

How would you help if you got upgraded?

Well I'd do exactly the same as I would do now but I am requesting 3P1C which would help Hack

I have learned a lot, used my personal funds to buy lots of items, used them, make sometime some amount of money. But even then I kept on learning from my mistakes. During my journey I have used Kraken, IM3, LL, Nanocore, ozone, lots of crypter. Today I have used Krypton and I find its one of the best crypter I have used till date. I was looking for a stable product from sometime and I have found it finally and I am gona buy it a private stub for sure asap.

Why would you want to be upgraded?

I want to contribute with my apps, helping people struck with issues, like chargebacks, and paying to the introducing more users to these forums who really deserves and contribute to this forum.

I also like to donate to this forum as it helps many people earn. I still feel there are lots many things I want to learn and contribute to this community. Being an ub3r is responsibility and not just a rank. So being more responsible must be more dedicated towards HackForums community.

Looking forward to work towards this community and wanted to keep on contribute more by releasing apps and tricks I have learned so far. I also like to release my tutorials whatever I have learned till now so that community can have benefit from it.

I joined HF in Jan 2011. To be honest I have been active in phases. Had some personal family issues. But the time I am active; I have been contributing to the community. It can be in the IT section, suggestions for improving HF, Giveaways, In lounge chatting with my friends, Gaming and last but not the least in the Monetizing section with some unique earning methods. Yes, I have learned a lot too! People here have been really helpful and at the same time have recognized my efforts. I earned L33T and UB3R by winning competitions only! Have really made some good friends here. They have guided me and have helped me in my tough times. I can easily say; HF is my second home now!

How would you help if you got upgraded?

Frankly, I am already a UB3R. And my working methodology will change in a positive mode. Yes, these type of upgrades give an inner confidence to do more hard work. I hope it inculcates the same feeling in me and I help the community by giving it more hours here and helping hands to my fellow buddies.

Well, around a year ago i started getting seriously into 'hacking'. I was a lurker on HF for around a year before i made this account and started contributing to the community that had taught be so many things. Since then i have chosen a section or two to dedicate my time towards. At the moment that is the RATs and CSGO sections. Both have an amazing community behind them. I am currently going down a different path in my journey, embedding myself into forensics and white hat hacking.

How would you help if you got upgraded?

I am not going to say it would make me a batter person or whatever. I am mainly after it so i can neg the LQ shitposters in the RATs section. *cough*chester*cough*

Mainly for the feew extra features that it has. This include +3 and -3 reps, self ban, junking threads, access to the ub3r only subforums and more.

Hopefully this is enough :) I didnt want to write TOO much.

Describe your HF journey in short

I've joined HackForums back in 2011 as a beginner to hacking. Everything looked amazing and interesting back then. I've been part of numerous groups, and have contributed my best in any way I can. if you look at my threads, you'll notice that I offer the best of my capabilities for free and I've never charged anyone what I've learnt for free. My HF journey has been interesting, fun and memorable so far, with the amount of friends and the memories I made, it's been great and I still look forward to have great time here and expand my abilities so that I can further continue to assist and contribute to the community to the best of my abilities.

How would you help if you got upgraded?

It would immensely help with me being able to reply to the amount of PM's I get everyday from my RAT help desk quickly as currently being limited to 30 seconds flood limit. However, it's not a major issue but it would really help me being efficient and faster at what I do. Also, PM space helps a lot and having 3p1c would increase my PM space to 5000, which means I do not have to worry about running out of space anytime soon. Getting 3p1c would signify my status as a member on this site as it's the 3rd tier upgrade option I've always had my eyes on, but haven't purchased it.

I've made numerous other contributions, but I did not list it here since, either they're old or I've junked them.

Why would you want to be upgraded?

Because 3p1c would provide me the features I really need at this moment which includes more PM space, and the removal of search flood and PM flood limit. Getting 3p1c would signify my status as it's the only stie membership I haven't got yet.

Describe your HF journey in short

Well, when i first joined HF it was for the RAT section. I was quite intrigued by hacking and thought i should learn here. I quickly learnt here as i read alot and asked for help when necessary. Every time i asked a question and got a helpful response i was happy and kind of annoyed that i could not give them help as i was so inexperienced with RAT's and crypters. This is what lead me to the Gaming section, specifically counterstrike.

I got the the counterstrike section and im not going to lie, everyone there seemed quite LQ, so i followed. I quickly saw my mistakes and apologised then strived to be a HQ member. I wrote some help desks did some free boosting and just help everyone i can! The vices section was next.

I moved from sub forum to sub forum and noticed Vices, it was quite interesting there, i really enjoy being there, people have similar interests and seem nice... Most of the time. There is not much to say about vices but, i enjoy chilling there in my free time.

I also like to stalk the lounge occasionally attempt to be funny, or just read threads. I tend to lurk occasionally. Thats my HF journey.

How would you help if you got upgraded?

Three major issues i have on hackforums right now could easily be fixed by being upgraded too L33T. One of these issues is i really enjoy PMing people here, i have awesome conversations and love too help. My message box gets filled fast and it is annoying and i sometimes lose track of who im talking too. Having a larger message box, will in turn let me help people easier.

The second issue i have is the lack of respect that i feel i have due to being Normal. I don't know if it is just me but i feel upgraded members are more respected instantly, which i think is totally okay. I would just like to feel respected considering i will almost always go out of my way too help you if i can.

The last Issue/problem i have is i cannot give people rep. I think it would be a really awesome thing to have, the ability to +rep and neutral rep people. I wouldn't over use it but, i would certainly help people who are getting rep fucked for no reason or people who are kind and not being acknowledged. I just think, it would make me a higher quality user!

No legit member have IP matches. Those who have are 95% multis.

Registered Dec. of 2011 to have some fun creating Minecraft griefing clients. Took a break from the forum sometime in 2012 and came back around mid 2014 focusing on graphics instead. Joined FBN a few months later, and moved with them after the group dissolve. And have been hanging around the graphic section rating interesting pieces, helping some people with questions or identifying fonts, and creating some userbars for groups.

How would you help if you got upgraded?

Nothing would change much, unsurprisingly. Still going to be giving critical feedback for users, still going to report bad posts, and still going to be around. It'd be more of an evolutionary change rather than a revolutionary one. The features are really just "nice to have" once you get past LEET (for me at least), I've been LEET for quite some time now and I'm not really complaining. 2FA is a welcome, trust scan is useful, more post editing features is cool, and among others as well.

Link to contributions you have made :

HF Userbar Showcase

Rest of the things I do are really just feedback/help in the RMG or Graphics forum.

I'm always critical in my feedback to hopefully encourage people to improve their quality of work.

Why would you want to be upgraded?

I'm always looking to move forward, and being upgraded to UB3R is that step forward.

p.s. I didn't like the original font combo, so I modified it.

My journey has just begun a little bit ago, but already I feel like a strong member of HF's society. I tend to be HQ, and wish to keep it as so. I was upgraded to l33t by a member of this forum for which I am grateful. I help as much as I can, even if I'm not as knowledgeable as some. I wish to grow even stronger with this forum as an Ub3r.

So.. it's been a long journey for me, i joined June 27, 2010.. at the time i was looking around on how to hack and also code, i was interested in Maplestory & Runescape, so as i search on google on how to code, hack games and tons of other things, i came across Hackforums and registered but if i would have to look back, really what i learned about hacking isn't hacking at all, just some basic stuff anyone could do with a few hours of reading threads but hey to the your public your a L33T hacker, well to those that don't know what they're looking at but yeah.. overall Hackforums has been an amazing place, i've learnt so much from it and to this day i still learn and visit it daily to read the lounge and other places that always have something new for me

How would you help if you got upgraded?

Well in general it doesn't help as much, but what it does do is permit me to access new features, give more feedback (rep) towards other members that deserve it, overall it just nice to have, I've been L33T for a long time and i think a change would be nice

I joined HF in Jan 2011. To be honest I have been active in phases. Had some personal family issues. But the time I am active; I have been contributing to the community. It can be in the IT section, suggestions for improving HF, Giveaways, In lounge chatting with my friends, Gaming and last but not the least in the Monetizing section with some unique earning methods. Yes, I have learned a lot too! People here have been really helpful and at the same time have recognized my efforts. I earned L33T and UB3R by winning competitions only! Have really made some good friends here. They have guided me and have helped me in my tough times. I can easily say; HF is my second home now!

How would you help if you got upgraded?

Frankly, I am already a UB3R. And my working methodology will change in a positive mode. Yes, these type of upgrades give an inner confidence to do more hard work. I hope it inculcates the same feeling in me and I help the community by giving it more hours here and helping hands to my fellow buddies.

I joined hackforums at the start of this year and have been on every single day since. When I first joined, I was interested in only one thing - quite honestly all I wanted was to RAT people and be a cool kid. After spending so long reading through the lounge and helping users with real life issues, whether it's with website development - harassment, school work, girl issues or just plain being in a bad place or being upset, I realized that for the members who look past the "money making" and "harassment hacking" you can really find some good people. Since then I have tried my hardest to improve the community and make peoples lives just a little better.

How would you help if you got upgraded?

I'm not going to lie - I just want 3p1c because you don't have an award to give :P but it might help me convince other users that I come into contact with to purchase an upgrade which overall helps the site

Joined in 2011 during a big life change for some escapism and have been lucky to meet some good friends. I am most active in the webhacking section. I have always been interested in hacking/reversing- the earliest related thing on the internet I could find from me was a post in 2002 on this forum:

<http://www.woodmann.com/forum/archive/index.php/f-3.html?s=58ac0ee2cffd45dd22c983d4f1174719> in which I was asking for help setting up softice lol. From when I joined HF I didn't know anything other than some out of date reversing stuff, but with the powers of unemployment (at the time) and 3 years later, I learned several programming and scripting languages, found various bug bounties as well as getting in google hall of fame for an XSS in the main domain. It culminated in being offered a job interview at a professional pentesting firm which I turned down lol. Turns out this is just a hobby not a career aspiration after all -_-!

How would you help if you got upgraded?

Describe your HF journey in short

I joined HF by referral of a retired user who was very well known. I spent some time on forums like BHW and learned a lot. I am experiencing that HF not only can offer me a lot of information and advice but I can also help a lot of users as well either with the things I have to giveaway, advice I can offer in the fields I have knowledge, or in other ways. I ultimately hope to be able to win upgrade contests now that I know about them because I have very little finances to do so myself. I feel as an upgraded member I can help even more. But whether it be in the lounge, free services, botnets, hacking tutorials, movies, or other, I not have learned that HF is an exceptional community of exceptional users where there is always an opportunity to learn more but also always an opportunity to teach more.

How would you help if you got upgraded?

As mentioned above I feel I can continue to offer bigger and better giveaways and also be able to achieve a higher level of trust from other members for the things I know I can offer. I seek to spread knowledge in any way possible and have experience already, that on HF being VIP has a lot more respect with it and VIP users get more general attention. Also, I have to always clear my inbox currently. I know that upgraded members get more space in their inbox and while I have 200+ posts, I answer many more pms trying to help individuals who seek my assistance.

And I have many more of these threads to come actually

Why would you want to be upgraded?

I have several reasons actually... first reason is because I don't have the financial stability to do myself. Another reason is because I know I could help a lot more members once I get upgraded as I'd be seen as more respected and more trusted. I would like to do a lot more giveaways for all users to enjoy. My hope is that once I get l33t I can then apply for ub3r membership as I've seen members with less rep and posts than myself currently gain ub3r so I feel I would be accepted. I want to be viewed as the highest quality member around and I strongly feel I can truly prove that without hesitation. I have a lot to offer and I know that being upgraded I could definitely get more respect to learn more, teach more and offer more. I would also very much appreciate being able to sell items in the marketplace once I get upgraded.

Thanks for your time and also very much thanks for doing this form so it's easy to fill out for all of us.

After some months i decided to upgrade to l33t but i didnt have any money, so i looked into methods and all of them recommended me to e-whore, so i did.

I made a good amount of money, so after i got accepted for UB3R i bought it.

I may not have the best postcount but believe me, i'm online almost everyday since the day i joined

Please excuse my over use of smileys on my old threads, i was new and i thought they where the coolest thing ever

Why would you want to be upgraded?

I've wanted the UB3R + EP1C combo for a while now, thats the same for the gift award (?) but the thing is that i dont have the money to upgrade again. I personally just love the extra features EP1C has and the award would encourage me to be more active as i will actually see that people support me.

Thanks for this awesome contest and goodluck to everyone!

Describe your HF journey in short

Started 3 years ago mainly because of the graphics. Over time, I started liking the community a bit. Spending a lot of time at the Graphics and SRPP sections now. I like it there.

How would you help if you got upgraded?

I'd probably use this as a motivation to post tutorials about the techniques I know at the Graphics section. Probably some tutorials regarding web design as well.

Link to contributions you have made :

If sharing one's own work would be considered as a contribution, I think I've contributed quite a bit. Got some of my works featured in HF news as well over the time. Anyways, for the sake of completing this post, I'll just include them.(besides the occasional innuedo posts, I only have graphics and SRPP ones)

Why would you want to be upgraded?

I've always wanted to be ub3r/3pic. Something about it is just appealing in an unfathomable way. That is, for me. Anyways, really appreciate you guys doing these kinds of things. You're like the humane creatures in the internet.

Describe your HF journey in short

I came here 2 years ago in order to expand my hacking skills. I discovered new interesting things though, and I ended up being interested in more areas.

How would you help if you got upgraded?

I would generally be more willing to help in any possible way. When receiving staff I have the need to repay for it/

(And many more giveaways).

Why would you want to be upgraded?

Because I would live to discover the perks of the 3P1C group. They would be really useful in some cases.

Thank you a lot for hosting.

P.S: I don't want to start posting a ton of threads which me be trash in your opinion. I'd recommend you check them yourself.
