Thread: Multi Gradient Letter Test

pissedaf - October 5, 2015, 6:15 pm

Inspired by Freeview's logo. I simply tried to copy it and turn it into letter forms.
Here is my first try on letter 'A'

Spoiler (Click to View)

serious critics are appreciated ?

Looks good man, great sense of depth and I love the shadows, really adds to the depth.

The bottom right shadow does seem a little harsh however, maybe lower the opacity by 5-10%.

Keep it up, nice work!

Thanks for the words.

I tried keeping it lighter but considering the darker base tones I thought a dark shadow will go with the flow.

Making it lighter gave it a emboss effect, felt like it was going in

ZerFallen - October 6, 2015, 4:02 pm

That looks really clear. Nice job!

kinda looks like something like a hot substance is below. lava but different color XD

A little tip: when you watermark an image you might want to place it over the picture. Right now I could easily steal the image and claim it as my own.

but you don't have the proof of the layers nor the psd file :)

I do, I wanted colors to be shown clearly so I watermarked proof

FalconBusiness - October 8, 2015, 4:36 pm

Very unique mate, try making a text with that and see how it turns out

Most people don't care for either. They'll just steal your logo for free work. It was just a tip take it with a grain of salt. ?

PirateDavy - October 8, 2015, 6:57 pm

Looks like a bent pole. 9/11

EDIT: Sorry for being an asshole lol, now that I look back at my reply that was pretty rude.

Thanks for that. I'll take it.

I understand it now

Saul Bass - October 9, 2015, 1:28 pm

Do your logo work in Illustrator...

Much better than Ps

?Thorium - October 9, 2015, 1:31 pm

Nice choice of colors, looks great I love the '3D' effect.

rapsep911 - October 9, 2015, 2:10 pm

WOW Much better than anything I could do

DJSanderrr - October 9, 2015, 2:16 pm

I'd actually like to know how you exactly made this, because it looks really dope imo!

That picture isn't worth shit. Anyone who steals that would never be able to make anything out of what he stole it for.

Shitty tip. OP did the right thing.

bigbubba - October 10, 2015, 12:16 pm

Ooo, very simple and clean! Looks great! <3

19209147 - October 26, 2015, 4:02 pm

Man that looks really good, nice composition of vivid colours and the illusion of depth is working good, I would say expand that technique on more complex letters and stuff. Keep it up!

that's right, Thanks for idea.

Gonna play around

gnarly. - October 28, 2015, 3:49 am

as people said above, the shadowing is really good and you've done well with it.

my only thing is, the yellow to orange is too quick and then the other fades are way too slow. either slow the fade down or remove the yellow completely.

Yes, thanks for pointing it out.

didn't realize that

I'll try adding some more colors to it.

I doubt it'll get any better though not really a font! will have to make individual letters

Cubama - October 29, 2015, 10:53 am

Keep it up, nice work! 100/100 lol Nice

SonikArts - November 15, 2015, 9:53 am

I like it! It looks kinda 3d :p

MONsTER - November 16, 2015, 3:23 am

Great work! I just did some work with Freeview so it's interesting seeing this!

Thanks,

nice....good work :)
keep it up

knrd - November 17, 2015, 6:41 am

It looks so fantastic, really love these designs.

Gravity Shifter - November 18, 2015, 8:03 am

It looks nice..maybe its too simple colored so would be better with some other coloring but all in all 9/10

it is based on an original logo
so I tried using same colors as that one.
Thank you for your advice though.
I'll play with it

VegaTF - November 26, 2015, 11:20 am

Simply and soooo good, i like it so much!! ^^
