I find this pretty cool... reminds me of Binding of Isaac xD, Still play the game now.

Got any other drawings like this?

Edit: didn't realize title was binding of Isaac based, never the less I love it.

step 1 - stand up step 2 - turn around away your head from what you were looking step 3 - get someone to click you image ?

Thanks for the comments so far!

As Ren is saying it was not done with intent but it really fits seeing how the old game had some of these imperfections all around.

Well I dont like to make the pixel art style a bit to hard.
