Thread: Scammed for \$120 by Frightening. UID=2715945

Natu - October 6, 2015, 10:48 pm

EDIT :

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4951809> << Change skype messages it is possible
He also replies on thread not even posting a transaction link, how sketchy?
He's butthurt that he failed to scam and now thrashing my threads, how even lower can you go.

He was going to purchase my clash of clans account

I went first cause he seemed legit, my reputation isn't the best of all.

So a short summary :

We tried to do the transfer through the code that is being generated from clash of clans which didn't work cause of the maximum devices.

So I gave him my e-mail and password for the Google Play Account

Before he even sent the money he changed my second e-mail and password etc.

After that all he said he was going to send me the money, after a while he claimed that he sent the money.

I copy pasted my BTC address and I also sent a screenshot of my BTC address.

While I was staring at skype and blockchain I saw my message that I've sent he changed my btc address.

Now I have more then enough proof for this

Spectate carefully.

Remove the space, it came out censored.

You can see the edit icons on my last message.

I've sent him the btc address, he made me say it again, I pasted it directly from the site and then he asked me to copy the one I said before.

But where he went wrong is the part where he said that he've sent it and forgot to change the first one and then asked me to confirm the btc address again whilst he apparently sent already.

Very nice attempt in scamming, I will recover my account back and I just hope that this guy doesn't deal on hf anymore.

Forgot to add that I asked for transaction link which he didn't provide (he didn't know how too, neither wanted to screenshare or anything)

Posting now his changed and my btc transactions

Bitcoin transactions :

I asked him if he could just try to obtain the account itself and leave my personal e-mail alone, even before he sent the money or what so ever he changed the second e-mail and phone number :

Post transaction link?

I just got the account back btw.

You just tried to scam which is not gonna happen gonna wait here for you to get banhammered.

You're the one supposed to deliver proof if you have sent the money should be no problem at all.

You and i both know you were payed. and you just took the account back. i'm not suprised i should've looked at your rep before dealing. Not the first time this has happened. anyways you have my money and now the coc too. Hope youre happy. if you have the account back ... also why would i be getting banned? exactly. fucking scammer.

Post transaction link?

Not that hard right, just a minute of work.

I don't got the money, I got my account back here is a lot of proof of your scam attempt. I hope you get exiled.

Here a link on how to send transaction link <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZugOB UWQdjY>

EDIT :

He reads this post and reply literally followed his status around the forum, refuses still to give a transaction link.

Well it shouldn't be hard to post the transaction link . And to top it all you dont seem to be bothered much for your loss of 150$ or somthing whatever you paid supposedly. LOL anyway looks legit scam report to me untill proven otherwise.

And For OP always like always use a middleman here on HF. Its not what it used to be Thanks bro. He can't provide a link cause he simply didn't send.

He also wanted to buy mine but I said if he wanted to use middleman, he stopped replying lol

I'm glad you got scammed. OP went on a scamming spree earlier this summer, stealing money from multiple members of our community (including me).

You actually deserved it.
