Thread: Rented a Lambo for China Trip and Proposing

Ornstien - October 7, 2015, 3:34 pm

I just got off the phone with my travel agent and he put in an order to rent a Lamborghini Gallardo LP560-4 Spyder. I am so excited, I rented it for a week which I paid 2000 dollars USD worth in Yuan. I dont know guys it has been a dream of mine to own one some day. It will be our 4 year anniversary and I am going propose to her after our first couple nights there. We have a five star hotel we are staying at in Hong Kong called the Kowloon Shangri-La Hotel. I really can not wait guys this is going to be the greatest month of my life.

UPDATE**

So, we are going to be leaving in the next few days. Is China restricted from HF? I want to keep updates as much as I can. If not you will all see updates in a month or so.

Okay guys meetup at the hotel named Kowloon Shangri-La in Hong Kong. Our target is a Lambo Spyder with a boy and girl. We rob them both and take the ring and car. Le go.
