Damn bro, you just did what I wanted to do for some time now. I have 2 laptops, one of them is really powerful, which i use for gaming, but I really want to save up some money I make, and spoil myself with a Macbook treat. Just the idea of, taking it out in a starbucks or in class makes enough to make me smile. Nothing bad with a little bit of showing off, everyone does it! :D

Exploitings - October 10, 2015, 12:11 am

Damn what do you do for money?

CodComedyTJ - October 10, 2015, 2:53 am

Hey good job man.

Currently saving up my E-Whore earnings for a Gaming PC.

Grammar Rays - October 10, 2015, 2:58 am

Welcome to the MacBook club. I've got the Air, and the Pro retina.

Takes a bit of getting used to if you're switching from Linux/Windows, but it's a nice looking OS.

Hackin - October 10, 2015, 6:02 am

I'd take one if it was given to me, I just cringe at the whole status symbol aspect of it.

"look at how good I am at overpaying for less-compatible hardware"

I'm guessing you're already heard your fair share of distaste for it's price though OP so I won't even bug you about it haha. They certainly look sleek.

Vicellus Drum - November 9, 2015, 4:50 pm

Do you get keyboard problems? My MBA is legend status since 2013, but once in awhile my A, 1, and backspace keys stop working. Apparently it's a common issue.
