First of all, this kid added me on skype and started rambling out of nowhere about how he can get a bot for $15 and how i won't get any sales. It's 100% someone who knows the method i'm using and is trying to sales trash.

Second, i'm not showing off. This kid claims he is a baller and makes thousands a day, but i had to prove him wrong by posting his earnings from his threads. He should be working at mcdonalds and give up on his internet marketing dreams. All he can scream is "VB.NET LOLLOL" because he's seen other people scream that shit. The bot works fucking flawlessly and thats all that matters.

I never said i had a "god" software, but my software is decent and has made me thousands of dollars. I'm selling it for the hell of it so people don't have to buy mentions for stupid prices. Instead they can do it cheap by buying accs/proxies themselves. This kid just turned my thread to shit. Whatever, i already got 2 sales, not worried about shit.

this happened a day before he posted this thread

i feel bad for the people who wasted money on this douche bag, i hope i had saw this thread a little earlier.

i originally contacted him to buy 1k accounts from him that day for $400. when i bought them half of the accounts were invalid. i told him i had a mentions bot (my friend gave it to me and said dont tell anyone) and he started to claim that he owns the bot and demanded that i tell him who gave me the bot. i didnt believe him, so i didnt say anything. then he started insulting me and threatened to dox me. after i kept refusing to tell him who gave me the bot. he tells me the bot is shitty and its backdoored anyways and the accounts he sold me were shit. (as shown in the picture)

he then he proceed to tell me that hes a 19 year old young "boss" that fucks 3 bitches a week, has a 190k house that is already paid off and that he doesnt care about anything. after that, he blocked me.

although, it was my fault for contacting him in the first place. people had warned me that he was a

I had the bot originally dev'd by a mate. i told you that its backdoored to shut your ass up. Another sales trashing idiot. I originally gave that bot to your "Friend", which obviously isn't a friend if he shares shit i tell him not too. i also have the original source you fucking twat to prove its mine. Get off my thread and go kiss more ass and suck dick. You aren't stopping any sales, lol. Moron. Your fucking network owner owns the same exact bot. Why don't you ask him who ORIGINALLY gave it to him. You really think i'd infect my network owner? Go look in the mirror and realize how stupid you are, and log out of hackforums forever. Kids like you are bad for doing business with, which is why we did none in the first place. Stop lurking my shit like every other ogmobi member who doesn't want this method patched, and also stop knocking peoples hustles. That's all i have to say. Anyways guys, still selling this. Ignore the jealous child above. Other customers are satisfied as far as i'm concerned. ???????

EDIT: ALSO, RUN NETSTAT -N ON CMD AND SEE IF YOU SEE ANY SUSPICIOUS INCOMING CONNECTIONS IF YOU THINK ITS BACKDOORED. Check %appdata% %programfiles% %temp% and ur fucking regedit run and runonce folders. CONFIG> STARTUP also. Smart one you think you are.

Just don't send like 20k+ mentions to a pic thats new or whatever and it won't get deleted. Per minute/hour doesn't matter.

It's just like being tagged on Facebook.. That's the only comparison I can make. When someone mentions you on Instagram you get a notification usually. Most people use this for building large pages/Mobile pay per install since you have such large reach to a targeted audience. Hope I explained that well enough.

I guess so, but how does mentioning others stimulate your own page.

Hm.. well if they like your content they're more than likely to follow you... If you have something for sale, for example, shoes, and mention users from a shoe page, you're bound to get sales/followers on those shoes. Get where i'm going? Kind of hard to explain.

I'm not selling accounts anymore. It's not the accounts getting banned, its checkpoints from them commenting quickly. thats what happens when you "SPAM". Want a more advanced version of this bot which i've sold to others for 400$+ with tag delays, custom scraping etc, then talk to me. I made this to market on hf because its low budget.

Mentioning people in your photos notifies them and usually sparks interest if you're pushing a product/offer. If they like your content they're bound to follow you and like your pictures.

(Oct 11, 2015 07:17 AM)FREEBANDZ. Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) First of all, this kid added me on skype and started rambling out of nowhere about how he can get a bot for $15 and how i won't get any sales. It's 100% someone who knows the method i'm using and is trying to sales trash.

Second, i'm not showing off. This kid claims he is a baller and makes thousands a day, but i had to prove him wrong by posting his earnings from his threads. He should be working at mcdonalds and give up on his internet marketing dreams. All he can scream is "VB.NET LOLLOL" because he's seen other people scream that shit. The bot works fucking flawlessly and thats all that matters.

I never said i had a "god" software, but my software is decent and has made me thousands of dollars. I'm selling it for the hell of it so people don't have to buy mentions for stupid prices. Instead they can do it cheap by buying accs/proxies themselves. This kid just turned my thread to shit. Whatever, i already got 2 sales, not worried about shit.
