Thread: [\[PayPal\] HOW TO GET MONEY OUT OF LIMITED ACCOUNT \[PayPal\]](#)

Brahma™ - October 14, 2015, 8:34 am

Disclaimer First: This simple tutorial in no way endorses the use of fake Accounts. It is for the sake of people who have their money stucked in Legit PayPal.

Hi Guys!!

Well I am sure you might not find this simple tutorial very impressive because of it's content or design. But hey....Think about other people who can't spot the obvious. I am sure this thread is going to help them at least.

So guys let me tell you how did I got the money back from my PayPal. I recently lost my PayPal account as it was permanently limited. This account of mine has $190 in it. So at first I was disappointed coz this account of mine was quite old and had a good reputation in PayPal's system.

So the next step that I took was to look for the emails of that particular day and find the clients who paid me. I found the details and contacted them either through email or Skype. Over a period of 3 days all of them responded and one by one I refunded them the amount from my limited PayPal account. Since I do not scam and do not DOUBLE/TRIPLE/FUCKLE DIP my clients, I share good and trustworthy relationship with them. After I refunded them the money from limited paypal account...they sent the money to my another account. This is how I got the money out of Permanently Limited account.

Hope this little story cum tutorial will help others. ?

I used this method without having to read about it, but it wouldn't surprise me if some people didn't think of it.

Sharing is caring, keep it up good sir!

Grievous????? - October 14, 2015, 8:44 am

Anyone with some sense of knowledge would do this.

But I though it was going to tell us how to actually withdraw it or something.

Because some people will be dicks and when you refund them, they will keep the money and block.

I had the same issue, and hopefully, since I sent money between my two accounts, I refunded everything to myself.

offpageseo - October 14, 2015, 9:18 am

Common sense for people who do it already. Method for those who keep wondering how to get the money back. ?

PurpleIsAColor - October 15, 2015, 3:55 am

Not a stupid idea.

I have a few limited accounts with a total of $500 or so, they got limited several years ago tho, doubt it'll work for me. And I misspelled my name, so I'm not allowed to withdraw to bank..

BoxLogoSupreme - October 15, 2015, 4:06 am never thought about this, pretty good idea.

Two accounts? I hope that's under TOS.

Appreciate your approach. However, I already knew of this method.

PayPal allows you to have one personal and one business account. I bet you knew this as well. ?

I have use this trick but it will not work always cause some time paypal also don't allow you to refund the money.

Brahma™ - October 16, 2015, 4:25 am

Dude I made this thread not to claim that it works 100% but to help people (the ones who do not know this is possible too) in getting whatever they can get out of their blocked PP. ?

misterbeen - October 16, 2015, 4:52 am

Thanks for good sharing bro

crus. - October 16, 2015, 2:58 pm

I was thinking about this the other day and wouldn't that increase the odds of your new paypal getting blocked again but faster this time? Since you're recieving cash again from the exact same bunch of people who sent to the old banned account.

Do pp bots care about that?

Voxi - October 16, 2015, 3:01 pm

I got mine froze, lost $108, might just add my bank account to it, since it's in my actual name. e-whore paypal = my paypal, neither verified.

EvoSat - October 16, 2015, 3:07 pm

Did this because my PP on my eBay got fucked, too bad eBay buyers are scammers so they decided not to send the funds (their info got released , addy name etc).

E-bay isn't a part of e-whoring as far as my knowledge goes. Wish I could help you with that regard as well.

vampire-san - March 14, 2016, 10:14 am

I was gunna do this method but it says that I can't even give refunds.

Danny Khalifa - March 14, 2016, 10:17 am

It is a good method, but there are bitches that if you refund, and even have a good relation, they will hold the money.

Yeah I know. But you gotta take chances to recover the money. Best you can do is to make a selection very carefully.

Reefer - April 3, 2016, 9:44 am

It works better if you call PayPal and ask to speak with a supervisor. Upon doing so, ask what you have to do to lift your limitation. Fulfill the requirements and viola.

Well you just forgot to consider one fact that nobody will call paypal for ewhoring related stuff.

An0nyJ - April 3, 2016, 4:10 pm

never knew why they got limited.

is it because you had loads of money or something? idk.

Only one explanation. VIOLATION of ToS of PayPal. That leads to limitation.

Private666 - April 3, 2016, 6:19 pm

this doesn't work if payments are sent as family and friends.

And what proof/fact/document do you have to support your claim? PM me if you want me to prove you wrong in private.

Secrets - April 3, 2016, 6:37 pm

If you send an email as well sometimes to executives they tend to aid a bit further however, sometimes you're stuck with the 45 or 180 hold time.

PhungSmurf - August 11, 2018, 5:42 am

Thanks for this, will probably need this in the future.
