Thread: false claims

oburoni - October 14, 2015, 5:00 pm

are people allowed to make false claims? this shit is so fucking stupid. i feel if your providing false claims you should be punished as hard as someone who is found doing something wrong like scamming/infecting hf.

I feel the same way tbh, but the staff dont get involved so it wont change anyways. Seems like they only get involved when its someone who A; donates a lot or B; is really known on here, and then they ban the scammers.

You need to stop with these threads, your spamming the forums with this LQ bullshit.

For the fucking 8th time, the users who -repped you broke no rules when they did this, your other thread was closed with a clear answer.

Shut up Chester your attempts to get me trouble with staff have always and will always fail. Logoff before this account is banned to. Fucktard.

Every account you make you make a thread like this and every time you get banned, catch a clue.
