Well first off I know it was something suspicious going on when I seen his web-based crypters homepage. Well user had the same login & theme just as the user Volkoffhttp Botnet, I remember because the user Volk was needing a funding partner for his Botnet before released we discussed over xmpp. So he gave me login credentials to the Botnet I logged in same layout and theme I can not post proof of that part atm since the website seems to redirect straight to google. So I was collecting info & data both users Sell MSDN Accounts & Sell Heartstone shit the threads was almost the same. I have read over alot of their post and they almost are the same. He put me on his ignored list so I could not gain and proof on him so I said remove off the list pls & I will provide proof. Please let me know what you think I have gave the screenshots to members on this forum with high stats and they agreed with me on the user might be VolkoffHTTP (Multi accountner).

Detective Dorrance at his finest.

DamienVC - October 15, 2015, 2:43 am

AntiAV and Hearthstone made it more obvious.

Why would he even come back? ?

Update: Stealing Netflix accs: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5022370>

lol ? x2

Good catch inspector gadget!

Make a tl;dr also, it's a pretty long thread

Dorrance - October 15, 2015, 4:17 am

You can either admit it when I call you the first time or test your fate by having going thru the work. At the end of the day I will most likely win but I do not lack in evidence, also I have more evidence on user.

That guy tried to scam me once and then proceeded to scam me anyways, so fuck him.

He uses Microsoft Azure in Washington which isn't banned on HF.

You should put those screenshots in a [IMG]ASD[/IMG] then put it in a spoiler. Clicking all those links is a pain in the ass.

Here, it's a gift for me. You deserve it.

Exploit your correct on what he uses I found out last night, and I found his DNS to his servers and his websites are vulnerable.

occupi - October 15, 2015, 6:00 pm

Huh, I was wondering why he was shitting on exploit.c in another thread. Now I know!

Xepher The Cat - October 15, 2015, 6:44 pm

Look, he could've well been friends with Volk or something and just shared. These ARE false claims that you are making and you should stop wasting your time. His thread against you is much more effective, as we know uStress hasn't worked and you're trying to sell it.
