I put out a thread asking if anyone was selling or knew contacts for spoofed server's that allow DDoS. I got a PM From KB saying that he could supply me with one so I added him on Skype straight away as he was the only way to contact me regarding his servers, we arranged for me to pay 12$ (17$ in my currency) so I did through goods and services. He then told me that it would take 20 days for the money to go through on goods and services so he refunded my payment and asked me to buy in friends and family, without thinking of the consequences from that I did (sorry I can't, ccleaner clears my history in chats) I also still haven't recieved the refund, it's "pending" so as of now, he has stolen 34$ from me.

I got the server and set it all up but after 2 days it doesn't work at all, I can't login. I've being sending him messaging constantly asking where is my server, no response even though he is online!!!

So I'd just like to post a scam report against this dick head. Who scammed me 34$ all up.

Thanks alot bud, hope you're enjoying that.

- New record, 3 times I've being scammed on HF.

Sorry to hear you got scammed, you should have asked him to do it first taking in judge his low reputation and post count.

Good luck getting your money back!

Almost bought an Amazon gift card from him. Got fishy vibes, blocked him.

GL with getting your money back.

Yeah well, I thought the server was a really nice deal and I was desperately needing it. So I didn't bother.. :/

It was probably some shitty 1$ VPS now that I think about it.
