Thread: Destiny - King's Fall Raid

Cap - October 22, 2015, 2:09 pm

I'm currently a 294 Titan and have been trying to do the King's Raid for a while now. No one wants to help because I'm not 300+. Anyways, is anyone interested in helping me out with the King's Raid so I can get some better gear?

Thank you.

Shoot me an add and I'll do the same. I'll gladly help you with the Raid. I've completed it before. Have you gone through any of it yet?

I've gotten to the glyph relay, but haven't gone any further than that.

Alright that's fine. You will probably be killing ads throughout most of the Raid, just so you know. I'll explain all of the roles though before we begin each part of the mission just so you're aware of everything.

Sounds great. Do you have a fire team for it?

I was the same way. I've helped 2 groups already since beating it, so it's nice. It's actually a fun Raid, but can be stressful with new people. Just once you learn everything, it's an easy thing to do.

Yeah, the raids are pretty easy to understand once you go through it once, but no one wants to give you a chance if you haven't tried it unfortunately.

I'll hit you up over the weekend for sure man. I am a 311 right now and still need to do Oryx but I had to get off. I'm fine with helping... but being a 294 with no revives won't be too fun for you.

Limit. - October 24, 2015, 4:35 am

I'll help you out man, just hit me up on Xbox and I'll give it a go. I'm a 306 Hunter with ToM. I love helping out newbies with this kind of stuff.

Was planning on doing HM today though, but we'll see. Just depends on the timing.

That's alright, I'm not too worried. I just want to do the raid so I can get better gear and understand this raid.

Also I am helping a friend later on normal mode so if OP needs help PM me and we can run dis shit. If you're on Xbox One...

Acrania - October 25, 2015, 11:56 am try getting to at least 297. i suggest grinding strikes.you could also constantly grind the will of crota strike on earth. it drops a pretty unique pulse rifle that shits on kids in pvp. but if you just wanna go straight into the raid go on LFG and find a raid team.

Sorry, this is for normal mode! And what time are you on?

M?tt - October 25, 2015, 2:00 pm

I'm online now if you want to play.

Do you have a fire team for normal mode?

Eonx - October 25, 2015, 2:19 pm

so much easier if you guys just use <http://www.destinylfg.com/>

inb4 "oh I wanna play with guys off HF" like they're better or anything. lol LFG works just fine just gotta have patience. plenty of teams willing to run with new people, considering normal is a joke compared to Hard mode.

I've tried on there, but I've honestly had no luck because I haven't fully completed the raid before.

stop lying lmao.

1.you couldnt even get past 305 without doing the full raid

2.max light is 310

hey there smart one.. hard mode came out friday morning... highest light is 320 now :)

duh...

you obviously don't play that much.

LFG is where I found people to complete the raid. just gotta search more and find people usually teamed up with other newcomers and run with them. it'll be a long learning process obviously but then after that. you can just join anyone after exp.

AltKev - October 26, 2015, 8:59 am

I would recommend to anyone to use LFG for Crota/VoG, and maybe Oryx Easy if you all know how to communicate with each other.

Hard mode is too much to throw 6 randoms together and have them beat it in a respectable time. LFG is full of retards, but sometimes you can make it work.

But everyone needs to know what the fuck they're doing if you're going to attempt Oryx with an LFG team.

M?tt - October 26, 2015, 9:36 am

The Facebook groups are helpful as well. That is how I got through mine.

Cap - October 26, 2015, 10:02 am

I finally completed the whole raid on normal. Unfortunately I received no great armor. All I picked up was Zaouli's Bane and Silence of A'Arn. Besides that, I received no armor or ghost (of course my lowest pieces are the ghost and the gauntlets).

AltKev - October 26, 2015, 5:52 pm

Both weapons you should infuse into better gear that you already have.

Only Raid weapons I deem worthy of keeping are the Scout, Pulse (with a decent perk for PvP along with the Cocoon), HMG, Rocket (with a good role too).

Regardless the role, the HMG is a tank in the Crucible

Yeah, I was contemplating that. I may keep them for now until I raid again and see what I get.
