My little brother likes to stream and is pretty good at the game. He plays CS:GO and maybe other games like H1Z1 and stuff like that. Go check him out, I'll bump the thread whenever he goes live and he tells me!

Your brother is pretty good man, enjoying his stream. I hope he wins the knife, goodluck.

Thanks for watching his stream! He's happy about the people who watched and got 3rd place, which was about $5 on Facelt. To him, it's a lot because he doesn't work so he has no extra money for stuff like skins or good peripherals. He'll probably be streaming the rest of the weekend as well.
